

CBS and AT&T Joint Statement on Reaching New Content Carriage Agreement

August 8, 2019

Multi-Year Deal Covers CBS-Owned Stations, CBS Sports Network and Smithsonian Channel Across DIRECTV, DIRECTV NOW, U-verse and upcoming AT&T TV Platforms

NEW YORK, N.Y. and EL SEGUNDO, Calif. – Aug. 8, 2019 – CBS Corporation (NYSE: CBS.A and CBS) and AT&T* (NYSE: T) have entered into a new multi-year content carriage agreement to provide CBS-owned local broadcast stations and national channels CBS Sports Network and Smithsonian Channel to customers of AT&T's video platforms across the country.

These stations are returning today to any impacted AT&T homes. CBS local affiliates previously available on DIRECTV NOW will also return to those streaming lineups. CBS Sports Network is returning to DIRECTV and DIRECTV NOW and Smithsonian Channel™ is returning to DIRECTV.

CBS and AT&T regret any inconvenience to their customers and viewers and thank them for their patience.

The agreement includes retransmission consent for all 26 CBS-owned stations in 17 markets including New York, Los Angeles, Chicago, Philadelphia, Dallas, San Francisco, Boston, Atlanta, Tampa, Seattle, Detroit, Minneapolis, Miami, Denver, Sacramento, Pittsburgh and Baltimore.

Terms of the agreement were not disclosed.

For more information, contact:

For AT&T:

Thomas Tyrer
AT&T Corporate Communications
310.874.0441
Tt917w@att.com

Gretchen Schultz
AT&T Corporate Communications
407.324.6009
gs1402@att.com

For CBS:

Kelli Raftery
CBS Corporate Communications
212.975.3161
kelli.raftery@cbs.com

Rick McCabe
CBS Corporate Communications
212.975.2602
rick.mccabe@cbs.com