BACKGROUND—THE SEPARATION

In June 2005, Viacom Inc. announced a plan to separate into two publicly-traded companies (such separation we shall refer to in this prospectus as the "separation"). To accomplish this, Viacom Inc. created a new publicly traded company that includes the advertising-supported Cable Networks business and the Paramount Pictures business. Upon the separation, which became effective on December 31, 2005, this new company was named "Viacom Inc." We will refer to this new company in this prospectus as "New Viacom." Also upon the separation, the existing company, formerly known as Viacom Inc., changed its name to "CBS Corporation."

The separation of New Viacom into its own publicly traded company was effected through the merger of Viacom Merger Sub Inc., a newly formed wholly owned subsidiary of Viacom, with and into Viacom, with Viacom continuing as the surviving entity. We refer to this merger in this prospectus as the "merger." Except as otherwise provided in this prospectus, unless the context otherwise requires, references in this prospectus to "Viacom" refer to Viacom Inc. as it existed prior to the separation.

CBS Corporation is the issuer of the Class B common stock. Except as otherwise provided in this prospectus, unless the context otherwise requires, references in this prospectus to "we," "us" and "our" refer to CBS Corporation and its direct and indirect subsidiaries.

In the separation, Viacom stockholders received 0.5 of a share of New Viacom Class A common stock and 0.5 of a share of CBS Class A common stock for every share of Viacom Class A common stock they owned. They received 0.5 of a share of New Viacom Class B common stock and 0.5 of a share of CBS Class B common stock for every share of Viacom Class B common stock they owned.

CBS CORPORATION

CBS Corporation is a worldwide entertainment company with operations in the following segments:

- Television: The Television segment consists of the CBS and UPN television networks, Showtime Networks Inc., which we will refer to in this prospectus as "Showtime Networks," including its various program services, CBS Corporation's 39 owned broadcast television stations, and its television production and syndication business through CBS Paramount Television and King World Productions. In January 2006, we announced a joint venture with Warner Bros. Entertainment to form a new fifth network, The CW. We also announced that UPN will broadcast its network schedule until fall 2006 and will cease operations thereafter.
- Radio: The Radio segment owns and operates 178 radio stations in 40 U.S. markets through CBS Radio.
- Outdoor: The Outdoor segment displays advertising on out-of-home media, including billboards, transit shelters, buses, rail systems (in-car, station platforms and terminals), mall kiosks and stadium signage.
- Parks/Publishing: The Parks/Publishing category includes Simon & Schuster, which publishes and distributes consumer books under imprints such as Simon & Schuster, Pocket Books, Scribner and The Free Press, and Paramount Parks, which is principally engaged in the ownership and operation of five theme parks and a themed attraction in the U.S. and Canada. In January 2006, we announced our intention to divest the Paramount Parks division. We expect to complete the divestiture in the second half of 2006.

On January 5, 2006, CBS Corporation acquired CSTV Networks, Inc., which we will refer to in this prospectus as "CSTV," for approximately $325 million. CSTV operates as a division under the Television segment. In connection with the acquisition and as part of the consideration to be paid to the former holders of capital stock of CSTV, we will issue to them 10,209,489 shares of CBS Class B common stock on February 1, 2006. Those former holders of capital stock of CSTV are the Selling Stockholders. The shares of Class B common stock will be issued in a private placement which will be exempt from registration pursuant to Section 4(2) of the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, which we refer to in this prospectus as the "Securities Act." We agreed to make available the shelf registration statement of which this prospectus forms a part for the resale of such shares of CBS Class B common stock by the Selling Stockholders.

CBS Corporation was organized in Delaware in 1986. CBS Corporation's principal offices are located at 51 West 52nd Street, New York, New York 10019 and its telephone number is (212) 975-4321.

Extensive and growing content library exploited on multiple platforms. CBS Corporation has a large television library that includes approximately 3,000 titles and more than 77,000 hours of programming, including a growing collection of high-definition content. This valuable asset includes many popular television programs, including CSI: Crime Scene Investigation, CSI: Miami, CSI: New York, Survivor, The Amazing Race, Cheers, I Love Lucy, The Andy Griffith Show and Frasier. In addition, through King World and CBS Paramount Domestic Television, CBS Corporation holds the library rights to current first-run syndicated television programs including Entertainment Tonight, Judge Judy and Inside Edition. Showtime Networks owns or controls various television and other rights to many of its original programs, including movies, specials, series and documentaries. Those titles include The L Word, Queer as Folk, Dave Chappelle: For What It's Worth, Fat Actress, Mario Cantone's Laugh Whore, Our Fathers, Reefer Madness and Rikers High. The CBS Radio division owns local content in many formats from its radio stations and is pursuing new media opportunities, including Internet streaming and podcasting. Scott Fitzgerald, among others. Through CBS Entertainment, CBS News, CBS Sports, UPN, Showtime, King World and CBS Paramount Television, CBS Corporation creates thousands of hours of original content each year and continually adds titles to this content library. CBS Corporation's analog and digital content library provides CBS Corporation with a stable source of syndication revenue, and its broad offerings also provide opportunities to generate revenue through many windows, including international syndication, the Internet, DVD sales, wireless technologies and digital media licensing.

Ability to serve the needs of advertisers. Many advertisers reach their consumers via CBS Corporation's programming. Whether an advertiser wishes to launch a new brand across multiple platforms or heighten awareness of an existing product in a particular region of the country, the scope of CBS Corporation's distribution network gives advertisers access to consumers in all 50 states and key international markets. CBS Corporation is well-positioned to serve advertisers locally with a combination of television, radio and outdoor properties in the majority of the top 20 domestic markets.

Experienced management team with a proven creative and financial track record. CBS Corporation has a seasoned senior management team with significant experience in the media industry and a track record of building successful businesses, and managerial talent with extensive experience in each of its segments and business units.

CBS Corporation Strategy

The principal elements of CBS Corporation's business strategy include:

Focus on high quality, broad-appeal programming and content. CBS Corporation has longstanding experience identifying, producing and distributing popular, high-quality programming that is designed to appeal to many audiences. Broad groups of viewers and listeners enjoy the Super Bowl, the Grammy's® and Survivor on CBS Network, and make 1010 WINS-AM New York "All-News Radio" the most listened-to station in the U.S., while targeted demographics watch UPN and listen to radio stations like KROQ-FM Los Angeles. CBS Corporation's television, radio, syndication and publishing businesses are dedicated to developing their content to reach both broad and targeted audiences and attract advertisers.

Exploit content on emerging platforms. CBS Corporation plans to continue to develop content that can be applied to existing, emerging and undeveloped platforms. CBS Corporation's content-based businesses in television, radio and publishing have established in-house digital media efforts focusing on the Internet, broadband technologies, wireless communications, on-demand programming and interactivity. These new platforms are expected to provide new ways for the various businesses of CBS Corporation to distribute the wealth of content produced by its many operations, and are expected to create new revenue streams from advertising, subscriptions and licensing.

Attract and retain creative talent. To build upon and ensure its leadership position in the development and distribution of its numerous forms of content, CBS Corporation will continue to focus on developing compelling content by seeking to attract, align with and retain high quality creative talent in each of its business operations, recognizing that it is the talent of writers, producers, actors and others that ultimately gives CBS Corporation its strength, its ability to serve its many audiences and customers, and its capability to grow market share in a competitive arena. CBS Corporation's management team maintains strong relationships with many of the most successful content creators in media and places a high priority on establishing a diverse and creative work environment.

Focus on local presence in large and attractive markets. The vast majority of U.S. revenue in the local radio, television and outdoor industries is generated in the nation's top 50 markets. CBS Corporation intends to maintain its focus and build its presence in large markets attractive to advertisers, and regularly evaluate its portfolio of television, radio and outdoor assets in each of those markets to ensure that its mix of properties is delivering attractive margins and cash flow.

Deliver an attractive return on investment to stockholders and maintain ongoing cash flow growth. By focusing on its strengths and other strategies, CBS Corporation intends to deliver attractive returns to its stockholders by continuing to grow its cash flow and returning a significant portion of that cash flow to its stockholders in the form of dividends.

RISK FACTORS

You should consider carefully all of the information set forth in, or incorporated by reference into, this prospectus and, in particular, the risk factors described below.

RISKS RELATED TO CBS CLASS B COMMON STOCK AND THE SECURITIES MARKETS

Many Factors May Cause the Stock Price of CBS Class B Common Stock to Fluctuate Significantly, and You Could Lose All or Part of Your Investment as a Result

The stock price of CBS Class B common stock may fluctuate significantly as a result of many factors. These factors, some or all of which are beyond CBS Corporation's control, include:

- lack of a trading history;
- actual or anticipated fluctuations in CBS Corporation's operating results;
- changes in expectations as to CBS Corporation's future financial performance or changes in financial estimates of securities analysts;
- success of CBS Corporation's operating and growth strategies;
- investor anticipation of strategic, technological or regulatory threats, whether or not warranted by actual events;
- operating and stock price performance of other comparable companies; and
- realization of any of the risks described in these risk factors.

In addition, the stock market has experienced volatility that often has been unrelated or disproportionate to the operating performance of particular companies. These broad market and industry fluctuations may adversely affect the trading prices of CBS Corporation common stock, regardless of CBS Corporation's actual operating performance.

RISKS RELATED TO OUR BUSINESS

A Decline in Advertising Expenditures Could Cause CBS Corporation's Revenues and Operating Results to Decline Significantly in Any Given Period or in Specific Markets

CBS Corporation derives substantial revenues from the sale of advertising on its networks, television stations, radio stations, outdoor media and syndicated programming. A decline in the economic prospects of advertisers, the economy in general or the economy of any individual geographic market, particularly a major market such as Los Angeles, New York or Chicago, in which CBS Corporation owns and operates sizeable businesses, could alter current or prospective advertisers' spending priorities. Disasters, acts of terrorism, political uncertainty or hostilities could lead to a reduction in advertising expenditures as a result of uninterrupted news coverage and economic uncertainty. Advertising expenditures may also be affected by increasing competition for the leisure time of audiences. In addition, advertising expenditures by companies in certain sectors of the economy, including the automotive, financial and pharmaceutical segments, represent a significant portion of CBS Corporation's advertising revenues. Any political, economic, social or technological change resulting in a reduction in these sectors' advertising expenditures may adversely affect CBS Corporation's revenue. Advertisers' willingness to purchase advertising from CBS Corporation may also be affected by a decline in audience ratings for CBS Corporation's programming, the inability of CBS Corporation to retain the rights to popular programming, increasing audience fragmentation caused by the proliferation of new media formats, including cable networks, the Internet and video-on-demand and the deployment of portable digital devices allowing consumers to time shift programming and skip or fast forward through advertisements. CBS Corporation's revenues from outdoor advertising also depends on CBS

Corporation's continued ability to obtain the right to use effective outdoor advertising space. Any reduction in advertising expenditures could have an adverse effect on CBS Corporation's revenues and results of operations.

CBS Corporation's Success Is Dependent upon Audience Acceptance of Its Television and Radio Programs, Which Is Difficult to Predict

Television and radio content production and distribution are inherently risky businesses because the revenues derived from the production and distribution of a television or radio program, and the licensing of rights to the intellectual property associated with the program, depend primarily upon their acceptance by the public, which is difficult to predict. The commercial success of a television or radio program also depends upon the quality and acceptance of other competing programs released into the marketplace at or near the same time, the availability of alternative forms of entertainment and leisure time activities, general economic conditions and other tangible and intangible factors, all of which are difficult to predict. Rating points are also factors that are weighed when determining the advertising rates that CBS Corporation receives. Poor ratings can lead to a reduction in pricing and advertising spending. In addition, the success of Showtime Networks is dependent in part on audience acceptance of its programming. Consequently, low public acceptance of CBS Corporation's television and radio programs will have an adverse effect on CBS Corporation's results of operations.

Failure by CBS Corporation to Create and Retain the Rights in Popular Programming Could Adversely Affect CBS Corporation's Revenues

Operating results from CBS Corporation's production businesses fluctuate primarily with the acceptance of such production by the public, which is difficult to predict. CBS Corporation's revenue from its television and radio production business is therefore partially dependent on CBS Corporation's continued ability to anticipate and adapt to changes in consumer tastes and behavior on a timely basis. Moreover, CBS Corporation derives a meaningful portion of its revenues from the exploitation of its extensive library of television programming. Generally, a television series must have a network run of at least three or four years to be successfully sold in domestic syndication. If the content of its television programming library ceases to be widely accepted by audiences or is not continuously replenished with popular content, CBS Corporation's revenues could be adversely affected.

CBS Corporation obtains a significant portion of its popular programming from third parties. For example, some of CBS Network's most widely viewed broadcasts, including the NCAA Division 1 Men's Basketball Championship, golf's Masters Tournament and PGA Championship, and NFL games, are made available based upon programming rights of varying duration that CBS Corporation has negotiated with third parties. In addition, Showtime Networks enters into commitments to acquire rights to feature films and other programming for Showtime, The Movie Channel and FLIX from motion picture producers and other suppliers for varying durations, and CBS Radio acquires the broadcast rights to syndicated shows and to various programs, such as sports events from third parties. Competition for popular programming that is licensed from third parties is intense, and CBS Corporation may be outbid by its competitors for the rights to new, popular programming or in connection with the renewal of popular programming currently licensed by CBS Corporation. CBS Corporation's failure to obtain or retain rights to popular content could adversely affect CBS Corporation's revenues.

Any Decrease in Popularity of the Programming for Which CBS Corporation Has Incurred Significant Commitments Could Have an Adverse Effect on Its Profitability

As of December 31, 2004, CBS Corporation had commitments of $10.9 billion for the acquisition of sports programming rights, $3.1 billion relating to television and radio production and acquisitions and $821 million for talent contracts, with $4.2 billion of these amounts payable in and after 2010. Any shortfall, now or in the future, in the expected popularity of the sports events for which CBS Corporation has acquired rights, or in the television and radio programming CBS Corporation expects to air, could lead to decreased profitability or losses for a significant period of time.

CBS Corporation's Operating Results Are Subject to Seasonal Variations

CBS Corporation's business has experienced and is expected to continue to experience seasonality due to, among other things, seasonal advertising patterns, seasonal theme park attendance and seasonal influences on people's viewing, reading and listening habits. Typically, CBS Corporation's revenue from advertising increases in the fourth quarter, Simon & Schuster generates a substantial portion of its revenues in the fourth quarter and Paramount Parks' revenues from admissions are primarily generated in the second and third quarters. In addition, advertising revenues in even-numbered years benefit from advertising placed by candidates for political offices. The effect of such seasonality makes it difficult to estimate future operating results based on the previous results of any specific quarter.

CBS Corporation's Businesses Operate in Highly Competitive Industries

CBS Corporation competes with other media companies for high quality content and attractive outdoor advertising space to achieve large audiences and to generate advertising revenue. CBS Corporation also competes for distribution on various cable, DTH and other platforms. CBS Corporation's ability to attract viewers and advertisers and to obtain favorable distribution depends in part on its ability to provide popular television, syndicated programming and radio programming and books, as well as well-placed outdoor advertising faces. In addition, the consolidation of advertising agencies, distributors and television service providers has made competition for viewers and advertising revenue and distribution outlets more intense. Competition for viewers and advertising comes from: other broadcast television stations and networks; cable television systems and networks; the Internet; terrestrial and satellite radio; outdoor advertisers; local, regional and national newspapers; direct mail; and other communications and advertising media that operate in these markets. Other television and radio stations or cable networks may change their formats or programming, a new station or network may adopt a format to compete directly with CBS Corporation's stations or networks, or stations or networks might engage in aggressive promotional campaigns. In addition, consolidation among book retailers has resulted in increased competition for limited shelf space for CBS Corporation's publications.

This competition could result in lower ratings and advertising and subscription revenues or increased promotional and other expenses and, consequently, lower earnings and cash flow for CBS Corporation. CBS Corporation cannot assure you that it will be able to compete successfully in the future against existing or potential competitors, or that competition will not have a material adverse effect on its business, financial condition or results of operations.

CBS Corporation Must Respond to Rapid Changes in Technology, Services and Standards in Order to Remain Competitive

Technology in the video, telecommunications, radio and data services used in the entertainment industry is changing rapidly. Advances in technologies or alternative methods of product delivery or storage or certain changes in consumer behavior driven by these or other technologies and methods of delivery and storage could have a negative effect on CBS Corporation's businesses. Examples of such advances in technologies include video-on-demand, satellite radio, new video formats and downloading from the Internet. For example, devices that allow users to view or listen to television or radio programs on a time-delayed basis and technologies which enable users to fast-forward or skip advertisements, such as DVRs and portable digital devices, may cause changes in consumer behavior that could affect the attractiveness of CBS Corporation's offerings to advertisers and could therefore adversely affect its revenues. In addition, further increases in the use of portable digital devices which allow users to view or listen to content of their own choosing, in their own time, while avoiding traditional commercial advertisements, could adversely affect CBS Corporation's radio and television broadcasting advertising revenues. Cable providers and direct-to-home (DTH) satellite operators are developing new techniques that allow them to transmit more channels on their existing equipment to highly targeted audiences, reducing the cost of creating channels and potentially leading to the division of the television marketplace into more specialized niche audiences. More television options increase competition for viewers and competitors targeting programming to narrowly defined audiences may gain an advantage over CBS Corporation for television advertising and subscription revenues. The ability to anticipate and adapt to changes in technology on a timely basis and exploit new sources of revenue from these changes will affect CBS Corporation's ability to continue to grow and increase its revenue.

Increased Programming and Content Costs May Adversely Affect CBS Corporation's Profits

CBS Corporation produces and acquires programming and content and incurs costs for all types of creative talent, including actors, authors, writers and producers. An increase in the costs of such programming and content or in the costs for creative talent may lead to decreased profitability.

Piracy of CBS Corporation's Programming and Other Content, Including Digital and Internet Piracy, May Decrease Revenue Received from the Exploitation of CBS Corporation's Programming and Other Content and Adversely Affect Its Businesses and Profitability

Piracy of programming is prevalent in many parts of the world and is made easier by technological advances allowing conversion of programming and other content into digital formats, which facilitates the creation, transmission and sharing of high quality unauthorized copies of CBS Corporation's content. The proliferation of unauthorized copies and piracy of these products has an adverse effect on CBS Corporation's businesses and profitability because these products reduce the revenue that CBS Corporation potentially could receive from the legitimate sale and distribution of its products. In addition, if piracy were to increase, it would have an adverse effect on CBS Corporation's businesses and profitability.

Changes in U.S. Communications Laws or Other Regulations May Have an Adverse Effect on CBS Corporation's Business

The television and radio broadcasting and distribution industries in the U.S. are highly regulated by U.S. federal laws and regulations issued and administered by various federal agencies, including the Federal Communications Commission (FCC).

The television and radio broadcasting industry is subject to extensive regulation by the FCC under the Communications Act of 1934, as amended. CBS Corporation is required to obtain licenses from the FCC to operate its radio and television stations. CBS Corporation cannot assure you that the FCC will approve its future renewal applications or that the renewals will be for full terms or will not include conditions or qualifications. The non-renewal, or renewal with substantial conditions or modifications, of one or more of CBS Corporation's licenses could have a material adverse effect on CBS Corporation's revenues.

CBS Corporation must also comply with extensive FCC regulations and policies in the ownership and operation of its television and radio stations and its television networks. FCC regulations prohibit the ownership of more than one of the top four networks and limit the number of television and radio stations that a licensee can own in a market and the number of television stations that can be owned nationwide, which could restrict CBS Corporation's ability to consummate future transactions and in certain circumstances could require it to divest some television or radio stations.

The FCC requires television stations to broadcast three hours per week of educational and informational programming designed for children 16 years of age and younger. In November 2004, the FCC issued a new rule that would have the effect of limiting the number of times that CBS Corporation's television stations could preempt educational or informational children's programming due to scheduling conflicts with sports and other live event programming. The industry and public interest groups have entered into a settlement agreement, which would moot the concerns. In the meantime, the FCC has stayed the effectiveness of the new rules pending its decision of whether to accept the settlement.

As part of the nationwide transition from analog to digital broadcasting, CBS Corporation's full power television stations are required to transmit a digital signal 100% of the time they are transmitting an analog signal. This requirement increases CBS Corporation's operating costs. At the end of the analog-to-digital period, these television stations will be required to cease analog transmissions. CBS Corporation is unable to predict the extent to which consumers will acquire digital conversion devices for analog television receivers and the effect of the cessation of analog broadcasting on viewership. In addition, CBS Corporation is unable to predict the extent or timing of consumer demand for digital television services and the resulting impact on CBS Corporation's viewership.

The U.S. Congress and the FCC currently have under consideration, and may in the future adopt, new laws, regulations, and policies regarding a wide variety of matters that could, directly or indirectly, affect the operation and ownership of CBS Corporation's radio and television properties. For example, from time to time, proposals have been advanced in the U.S. Congress and at the FCC to require radio and television broadcast stations to provide advertising time to political candidates for free or at a reduced charge. In addition, some policymakers maintain that cable operators should be required to offer à la carte programming to subscribers on a network by network basis. Unbundling packages of program services may increase both competition for carriage on distribution platforms and marketing expenses, which could adversely affect Showtime Networks' results of operations.

Changes to the media ownership and other FCC rules may affect the competitive landscape in ways that could increase the competition faced by CBS Corporation. CBS Corporation is unable to predict the effect that any such laws, regulations or policies may have on its operations.

Vigorous Enforcement or Enhancement of FCC Indecency and Other Program Content Rules Against the Broadcast and Cable Industry Could Have an Adverse Effect on CBS Corporation's Businesses and Results of Operations

The FCC's rules prohibit the broadcast of obscene material at any time and indecent or profane material on television or radio broadcast stations between the hours of 6 a.m. and 10 p.m. Broadcasters risk violating the prohibition against broadcasting indecent material because of the vagueness of the FCC's definition of indecent material, coupled with the spontaneity of live programming.

The FCC vigorously enforces its indecency rules against the broadcasting industry as a whole. The FCC has indicated that it is stepping up its enforcement activities as they apply to indecency, and has threatened to initiate license revocation proceedings against broadcast licensees for "serious" indecency violations. The FCC has found on a number of occasions recently, chiefly with regard to radio stations, that the content of broadcasts has contained indecent material. In such instances, the FCC issued fines to the offending licensees. Moreover, the FCC has recently begun imposing separate fines for each allegedly indecent "utterance," in contrast with its previous policy, which generally considered all indecent words or phrases within a given program as constituting a single violation.

In addition, legislation has been introduced in the U.S. Congress which would, among other things, (i) significantly increase the fines for indecent broadcasts, (ii) specify that all indecency violations are "serious" violations for license renewal purposes and (iii) mandate an evidentiary hearing to consider the revocation of a station's license or construction permit of any station that has had three indecency violations during its license term. If the FCC denied a license renewal for one of CBS Corporation's broadcast radio or television stations, CBS Corporation would lose its authority to operate the station.

The determination of whether content is indecent is inherently subjective and, as such, it can be difficult to predict whether particular content could violate indecency standards. The difficulty in predicting whether individual programs, words or phrases may violate the FCC's indecency rules adds significant uncertainty to CBS Corporation's ability to comply with the rules. Violation of the indecency rules could lead to sanctions which may adversely affect CBS Corporation's businesses and results of operations.

Some policymakers also support the extension of the indecency rules that are applicable to over-the-air broadcasters to cover cable and satellite programming and/or attempts to step up enforcement of or otherwise expand existing laws and rules. If such an extension or attempt to step up enforcement took place and was not found to be unconstitutional, some of CBS Corporation's cable content could be subject to additional regulation and might not be able to attract the same subscription and viewership levels.

The Loss of Affiliation Agreements or Retransmission Agreements Could Materially Adversely Affect CBS Corporation's Results of Operations

CBS Network and UPN provide their affiliates with up to 98 and 10 hours, respectively, of Monday through Friday programming per week. In return, CBS Network's affiliated stations and UPN's affiliated stations broadcast network-inserted commercials during that programming. Loss of network affiliation agreements of CBS Network and UPN could adversely affect CBS Corporation's results of operations by reducing the reach of CBS Corporation's programming and therefore its attractiveness to advertisers and renewal on less favorable terms may also adversely affect CBS Corporation's results of operations.

The non-renewal or termination of retransmission agreements with distributors such as Comcast Corporation, Time Warner Cable, a division of Time Warner Inc., DIRECTV Holdings LLC, or EchoStar Communications Corporation, or continued distribution on less favorable terms, could also adversely affect CBS Corporation's ability to distribute its network programming to a nationwide audience and affect CBS Corporation's ability to sell advertising, which could have a material adverse effect on CBS Corporation's results of operations.

Showtime Networks is dependent upon the maintenance of affiliation agreements with cable and DTH satellite operators, and there can be no assurance that these affiliation agreements will be renewed in the future on terms acceptable to Showtime Networks. The loss of one or more of these arrangements would reduce the distribution of Showtime Networks' premium subscription television program services and reduce revenues from subscriber fees. Further, the loss of favorable packaging, positioning, pricing or other marketing opportunities with any distributor could reduce revenues from subscriber fees.

In addition, consolidation among cable and DTH satellite operators and increased vertical integration of such distributors into the cable or broadcast network business has provided more leverage to these providers and could adversely affect CBS Corporation's ability to maintain or obtain distribution for its network programming or distribution and/or marketing for its premium subscription program services on commercially reasonable terms, or at all.

The Failure or Destruction of Satellites and Transmitter Facilities That CBS Corporation Depends Upon to Distribute Its Programming Could Materially Adversely Affect CBS Corporation's Businesses and Results of Operations

CBS Corporation uses satellite systems to transmit its broadcast and cable networks to affiliates. The distribution facilities include uplinks, communications satellites and downlinks. Transmissions may be disrupted as a result of local disasters that impair on-ground uplinks or downlinks, or as a result of an impairment of a satellite. Currently, there are a limited number of communications satellites available for the transmission of programming. If a disruption occurs, CBS Corporation may not be able to secure alternate distribution facilities in a timely manner. Failure to secure alternate distribution facilities in a timely manner could have a material adverse effect on CBS Corporation's businesses and results of operations.

In addition, each of CBS Corporation's television and radio stations and cable networks uses studio and transmitter facilities that are subject to damage or destruction. Failure to restore such facilities in a timely manner could have a material adverse effect on CBS Corporation's businesses and results of operations.

CBS Corporation Could Suffer Losses Due to Asset Impairment Charges for Goodwill, Intangible Assets, FCC Licenses and Programming

In accordance with Statement of Financial Accounting Standards No. 142, "Goodwill and Other Intangible Assets" (SFAS 142), CBS Corporation will test goodwill and intangible assets, including broadcast licenses, for impairment during the fourth quarter of each year, and on an interim date should factors or indicators become apparent that would require an interim test. A downward revision in the fair value of a reporting unit or intangible assets could result in an impairment under SFAS 142 and a non-cash charge would be required. Any significant shortfall, now or in the future, in the expected popularity of the programming for which CBS Corporation has acquired rights could lead to a downward revision in the fair value of such assets. Any such charge could have a material effect on CBS Corporation's reported net earnings. On February 1, 2006, we filed a Current Report on Form 8-K relating to the test for the fourth quarter of 2005. See section entitled "Incorporation of Certain Information By Reference" beginning on page 36.

The Loss of Key Personnel, Including Talent, Could Disrupt the Management or Operations of CBS Corporation's Business and Adversely Affect Its Revenues

CBS Corporation's business depends upon the continued efforts, abilities and expertise of its chief executive officer and other key employees and entertainment personalities. CBS Corporation believes that the unique combination of skills and experience possessed by its executive officers would be difficult to replace, and that the loss of its executive officers could have a material adverse effect on CBS Corporation, including the impairment of CBS Corporation's ability to execute its business strategy. Additionally, CBS Corporation employs or independently contracts with several entertainment personalities and authors with significant loyal audiences. Entertainment personalities are sometimes significantly responsible for the ranking of a television or radio station and, therefore, the ability of the station to sell advertising, and an author's popularity can be significantly responsible for the success of a particular book. There can be no assurance that these entertainment personalities and authors will remain with CBS Corporation or will retain their current audiences or readership. If CBS Corporation fails to retain these entertainment personalities and authors or they lose their current audiences or readership, CBS Corporation's revenues could be adversely affected.

Regulation of the Outdoor Advertising Industry Could Materially Adversely Affect CBS Corporation's Outdoor Business

The outdoor advertising industry is subject to extensive governmental regulation at the federal, state and local levels in the U.S. and to national, regional and local restrictions in foreign countries. These regulations can affect the operation of advertising displays and include restrictions on the construction, repair, upgrading, height, size and location of outdoor advertising structures and, in some instances, the content of advertising copy that can be displayed on these structures. In addition, in recent years, outdoor advertising has become the subject of targeted state and municipal taxes. Such laws may reduce CBS Corporation's expansion opportunities or may increase competitive pressure from others. CBS Corporation cannot give any assurance that existing or future laws or regulations will not materially and adversely affect its outdoor business.

If Accidents Occur at Paramount Parks or Competing Parks, Attendance at Paramount Parks May Decline Which Would Negatively Impact CBS Corporation's Revenues

There are inherent risks involved with the attractions at theme parks. An accident or an injury at any of Paramount Parks' theme parks could expose CBS Corporation to significant liability for personal injury claims. In addition, an accident or injury at these parks or at parks operated by competitors of Paramount Parks may create public concern and negative media coverage about the safety of theme parks and reduce attendance at Paramount Parks' theme parks, which would negatively impact CBS Corporation's revenues.

Fluctuations in Foreign Exchange Rates Could Have an Adverse Effect on CBS Corporation's Results of Operations

Certain of CBS Corporation's revenues are earned and expenses are incurred in foreign currencies. The value of these currencies fluctuates relative to the U.S. dollar. As a result, CBS Corporation is exposed to exchange rate fluctuations, which could have an adverse effect on its results of operations.

CBS Corporation's Liabilities Related to Discontinued Operations and Former Businesses Could Adversely Impact Its Financial Condition

CBS Corporation has both recognized and potential liabilities and costs related to discontinued operations and former businesses, certain of which are unrelated to the media business, including leases, guarantees, environmental liabilities, liabilities related to the pensions and medical expenses of retirees, asbestos liabilities, contractual disputes and other pending and threatened litigation. CBS Corporation cannot assure you that its reserves are sufficient to cover these liabilities in their entirety or any one of these liabilities when it becomes due or at what point any of these liabilities may come due. Therefore, there can be no assurances that these liabilities will not have a material adverse effect on CBS Corporation's financial position, operating performance or cash flow.

CBS Corporation Could Be Adversely Affected by Strikes and Other Union Activity

CBS Corporation and its suppliers engage the services of writers, directors, actors and other talent, trade employees and others who are subject to collective bargaining agreements. If CBS Corporation or its suppliers are unable to renew expiring collective bargaining agreements, it is possible that the affected unions could take action in the form of strikes or work stoppages. Such actions, higher costs in connection with these agreements or a significant labor dispute could adversely affect CBS Corporation's television and radio businesses by causing delays in the production of CBS Corporation's television or radio programming or CBS Corporation's outdoor business by disrupting its ability to place advertising on outdoor faces.

Political and Economic Risks Associated with CBS Corporation's International Businesses Could Harm CBS Corporation's Financial Condition or Results of Operations

CBS Corporation's businesses operate and have customers worldwide. Inherent risks of doing business in international markets include, among other risks, changes in the economic environment, export restrictions, exchange controls, tariffs and other trade barriers and longer payment cycles. CBS Corporation may incur substantial expense as a result of the imposition of new restrictions or changes in the existing economic environment in the regions where it does business. In addition, acts of terrorism or other hostilities, or other future financial, political, economic or other uncertainties, could lead to a reduction in advertising expenditures, which could materially adversely affect CBS Corporation's business, financial condition or results of operations.

NAI, Through Its Voting Control of CBS Corporation, Will Be in a Position to Control Actions that Require Stockholder Approval

National Amusements, Inc., which we refer to in this prospectus as "NAI," through its beneficial ownership of CBS Class A common stock, has voting control of CBS Corporation. Mr. Sumner M. Redstone, the controlling stockholder, chairman of the board of directors and chief executive officer of NAI, is also the chairman of the CBS Corporation board of directors, and Ms. Shari Redstone, the president and a director of NAI, is the vice chair of the CBS Corporation board of directors. In addition, Messrs. David R. Andelman and Philippe P. Dauman are directors of NAI and are directors of CBS Corporation. NAI is in a position to control the outcome of corporate actions that require stockholder approval, including the election of directors and transactions involving a change of control. You will be unable to affect the outcome of the corporate actions of CBS Corporation for so long as NAI retains voting control.

RISKS RELATED TO THE SEPARATION

The Financial Results of CBS Corporation May Be Subject to Increased Variability After the Separation

After the separation, CBS Corporation has distinct market dynamics and economics as compared to Viacom prior to the separation. The businesses that CBS Corporation operates are sensitive to general economic conditions, consumer confidence, consumer retail spending, interest rates, adverse publicity, competition and trends in technology. The diversification that Viacom had prior to the separation, resulting from operating the businesses of New Viacom alongside the businesses of CBS Corporation, tended to moderate financial and operational volatility. Following the separation, that diversification diminishes, and CBS Corporation may experience increased volatility in terms of cash flow, seasonality, working capital and financing requirements.

The Historical and Pro Forma Financial Information of CBS Corporation May Not Be Indicative of Its Result as a Separate Company

The historical and pro forma financial information of CBS Corporation presented in, or incorporated by reference into, this prospectus may not necessarily reflect what the results of operations, financial condition and cash flows of CBS Corporation would have been had New Viacom and CBS Corporation been operating as separate entities pursuing independent strategies during the periods presented or what the results of operations, financial condition and cash flows of CBS Corporation will be in the future. As a result, historical and pro forma financial information should not be relied upon as being indicative of future results of operations, financial condition and cash flows of CBS Corporation.

The Businesses of New Viacom and CBS Corporation Will Be Attributable to the Other Company for Certain Regulatory Purposes

So long as New Viacom and CBS Corporation are under common control, each company's businesses, as well as the businesses of any other commonly controlled company, will be attributable to the other company for purposes of U.S. and non-U.S. antitrust rules and regulations, certain rules and regulations of the FCC, and certain rules regarding political campaign contributions in the U.S., among others. The businesses of one company will continue to be attributable to the other company for FCC purposes even after the two companies cease to be commonly controlled, if the two companies share common officers, directors, or attributable stockholders. As a result, the businesses and conduct of New Viacom may have the effect of limiting the activities or strategic business alternatives available to CBS Corporation.

The Separation Agreement Prohibits CBS Corporation from Engaging in Certain Types of Businesses

Under the terms of the separation agreement entered into between New Viacom and CBS Corporation in connection with the separation, CBS Corporation may not make acquisitions, enter into agreements or accept or agree to any condition that purports to bind New Viacom or subjects New Viacom to restrictions it is not otherwise subject to by legal order without New Viacom's consent. New Viacom and CBS Corporation have agreed that prior to the earliest of (1) the fourth anniversary of the separation, (2) the date on which none of Mr. Redstone, NAI, NAIRI, Inc., a wholly owned subsidiary of NAI, or any of their successors, assigns or transferees are deemed to have interests in both CBS Corporation and New Viacom that are attributable under applicable U.S. federal laws and (3) the date on which the other company ceases to own the video programming vendors that it owns as of the separation, neither of them will own or acquire an interest in a cable television operator if such ownership would subject the other company to U.S. federal laws regulating contractual relationships between video programming vendors and video programming distributors that the other company is not then subject to. These restrictions could limit the strategic business alternatives available to CBS Corporation.

The Tax Matters Agreement and the Tax Rules Applicable to the Separation May Restrict New Viacom and CBS Corporation's Ability to Engage in Certain Corporate Transactions

In connection with the separation, the companies entered into a tax matters agreement, effective as of the separation, which we refer to in this prospectus as the "tax matters agreement." The tax matters agreement provides, among other things, that, depending on the event, New Viacom may have to indemnify CBS Corporation, or CBS Corporation may have to indemnify New Viacom, for some or all of the taxes resulting from the merger and the distribution of New Viacom common stock in the merger if the merger and distribution do not qualify as a tax-free distribution under Sections 355 and 368 of the United States Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended (the "Code"). In addition, the current U.S. federal income tax law creates a presumption that the distribution of New Viacom common stock in the merger would be taxable to Viacom, but not to its stockholders, if either New Viacom or CBS Corporation engages in, or enters into an agreement to engage in, a transaction that would result in a 50% or greater change, by vote or value, in CBS Corporation's or New Viacom's stock ownership during the four-year period that begins two years before the date of the separation, unless it is established that the transaction was not undertaken pursuant to a plan or series of transactions related to the separation. The Treasury Regulations currently in effect generally provide that whether such distribution is part of a plan is determined based on all of the facts and circumstances, including, but not limited to, specific factors described in the Treasury Regulations. In addition, the Treasury Regulations provide several "safe harbors" for acquisition transactions that are not considered to be part of a plan. The indemnification obligations set forth in the tax matters agreement and the above-described provisions of the tax law may prevent CBS Corporation from entering into transactions which might be advantageous to its stockholders, such as issuing equity securities to satisfy financing needs or acquiring businesses or assets with equity securities, and may make CBS Corporation less attractive to a potential acquirer and reduce the possibility that an acquirer will propose or seek to effect certain transactions with CBS Corporation.

If the Merger Is Determined to Be Taxable, CBS Corporation and its Stockholders Could Be Subject to a Material Amount of Taxes

Viacom received an opinion of Paul, Weiss, Rifkind, Wharton & Garrison LLP and a private letter ruling from the U.S. Internal Revenue Service (IRS), in each case, to the effect that, for U.S. federal income tax purposes, the merger and the distribution of New Viacom common stock in the merger qualified as a tax-free distribution under Sections 355 and 368 of the Code and the distribution of CBS Corporation common stock in the merger was also generally tax-free to Viacom and its stockholders. In accordance with current IRS ruling policy, the IRS ruling does not address certain significant issues relating to qualification under Section 355 of the Code and, as to those issues, Viacom relied on an opinion of counsel. The merger was structured to be tax-free for U.S. federal income tax purposes to Viacom stockholders, except with respect to cash received in lieu of fractional shares of CBS Corporation common stock and New Viacom common stock. The merger was also tax-free to Viacom for U.S. federal income tax purposes, except with respect to taxes arising out of foreign and other internal restructurings undertaken in connection with the separation and any "excess loss account" or "intercompany transaction" required to be taken into account by Viacom under the Treasury Regulations. The IRS ruling was based on the facts presented and representations made by Viacom in the ruling request. Generally, an IRS private letter ruling will not be revoked or modified retroactively unless there was an omission or misstatement of a material fact or a breach of a material representation. If the facts or representations are found to be incorrect or incomplete in a material respect or if the facts at the time of the separation were materially different from the facts upon which the IRS ruling was based, Viacom cannot rely on the IRS ruling. An opinion of counsel is not binding on the IRS or any court and is also based on representations and assumptions included therein. If the factual representations and assumptions were incorrect, Viacom cannot rely on the tax opinion.

If the merger is determined to be taxable, Viacom and its stockholders who received shares of CBS Corporation common stock and New Viacom common stock would be subject to a material amount of taxes. CBS Corporation will not indemnify any individual stockholder for any taxes that may be incurred in connection with the separation.

In Connection with the Separation, Each Company Will Rely on the Other Company's Performance Under Various Agreements Between the Companies

In connection with the separation, New Viacom and CBS Corporation entered into various agreements, including the separation agreement, the tax matters agreement, a transition services agreement pursuant to which New Viacom and CBS Corporation have agreed to provide certain specified services to each other following the separation and which we refer to in this prospectus as the "transition services agreement," and certain related party arrangements pursuant to which New Viacom and CBS Corporation will provide services and products to each other from and after the separation. The separation agreement sets forth the allocation of assets, liabilities, rights and obligations of New Viacom and CBS Corporation following the separation, and includes indemnification obligations for such liabilities and obligations. In addition, pursuant to the tax matters agreement, certain income tax liabilities and related responsibilities are allocated between, and indemnification obligations are assumed by, each of New Viacom and CBS Corporation. Each company will rely on the other company to satisfy its performance and payment obligations under these agreements. Certain of the liabilities to be assumed or indemnified by New Viacom or CBS Corporation under these agreements are legal or contractual liabilities of the other company. If New Viacom were to breach or be unable to satisfy its material obligations under these agreements, including a failure to satisfy its indemnification obligations, CBS Corporation could suffer operational difficulties or significant losses.

Certain Members of Management, Directors and Stockholders May Face Actual or Potential Conflicts of Interest

The management and directors of CBS Corporation own both New Viacom common stock and CBS Corporation common stock, and both New Viacom and CBS Corporation are controlled by NAI. Mr. Redstone, the controlling stockholder, chairman of the board of directors and chief executive officer of NAI, serves as chairman of the New Viacom board of directors and chairman of the CBS Corporation board of directors. Ms. Redstone, the president and a director of NAI, serves as vice chair of the board of directors of both New Viacom and CBS Corporation. Messrs. George S. Abrams, David R. Andelman and Philippe P. Dauman are directors of NAI, and Mr. Dauman serves as a director of both New Viacom and CBS Corporation, Mr. Abrams serves as a director of New Viacom and Mr. Andelman serves as a director of CBS Corporation. This ownership overlap and these common directors could create, or appear to create, potential conflicts of interest when New Viacom's and CBS Corporation's management, directors and controlling stockholder face decisions that could have different implications for New Viacom and CBS Corporation. For example, potential conflicts of interest could arise in connection with the resolution of any dispute between New Viacom and CBS Corporation regarding the terms of the agreements governing the separation and the relationship between New Viacom and CBS Corporation thereafter. These agreements include, among others, the separation agreement, the tax matters agreement, the transition services agreement and any commercial agreements between the parties or their affiliates. Potential conflicts of interest could also arise if New Viacom and CBS Corporation enter into any commercial arrangements with each other in the future. Each of Mr. Redstone, Ms. Redstone and Mr. Dauman may also face conflicts of interest with regard to the allocation of his or her time between New Viacom and CBS Corporation.

The CBS Corporation's certificate of incorporation contains provisions related to corporate opportunities that may be of interest to both New Viacom and CBS Corporation. The CBS Corporation certificate of incorporation provides that in the event that a director, officer or controlling stockholder of CBS Corporation who is also a director, officer or controlling stockholder of New Viacom acquires knowledge of a potential corporate opportunity for both New Viacom and CBS Corporation, such director, officer or controlling stockholder may present such opportunity to New Viacom or CBS Corporation or both, as such director, officer or controlling stockholder deems appropriate in his or her sole discretion, and that by doing so such person will have satisfied his or her fiduciary duties to CBS Corporation and its stockholders. In addition, the CBS Corporation certificate of incorporation provides that CBS Corporation renounces any interest in any such opportunity presented to New Viacom. The New Viacom certificate of incorporation contains mirror provisions. These provisions create the possibility that a corporate opportunity of one company may be used for the benefit of the other company.

CBS Corporation May Not Enjoy All of the Benefits of Scale that Viacom Achieved with All of Its Businesses Under the Same Corporate Structure

Prior to the separation, Viacom businesses shared benefits of scope and scale in costs, human capital, vendor relationships and customer relationships. While New Viacom and CBS Corporation entered into agreements that will govern a number of their commercial and other relationships after the separation, those arrangements do not fully capture the benefits the businesses enjoyed as a result of common ownership prior to the separation. The loss of these benefits as a consequence of the separation could have an adverse effect on CBS Corporation's businesses, results of operations and financial condition following the separation.

CBS Corporation Has a New Operating Structure and New Management

The separation of CBS Corporation into its own publicly traded company involved the division of Viacom's businesses. In connection with the separation, many jointly-held assets and operating systems as well as personnel have been allocated between the companies, in particular at Paramount and in Viacom's corporate offices, and new related party agreements have been entered into to govern the ongoing business relationships between the companies following the separation. Each company has a senior corporate staff that includes several executives who were hired relatively recently or who recently assumed all or a substantial part of their current responsibilities. There can therefore be no assurance that CBS Corporation will be successful under these conditions.

EXPLANATORY NOTE RELATING TO THE UNAUDITED
PRO FORMA CONSOLIDATED CONDENSED FINANCIAL INFORMATION

For your reference, we have included in this prospectus certain unaudited pro forma consolidated condensed financial information of CBS Corporation originally included in the S-4 Registration Statement in connection with the separation. The information in this section has not been updated to reflect the separation. In addition, on December 29, 2005, New Viacom paid CBS Corporation a special cash dividend in the amount of $5.4 billion, subject to certain adjustments, in connection with the separation. See the discussion in Note 2 in the section "Unaudited Pro Forma Consolidated Condensed Financial Information."

NOTES TO CBS CORPORATION UNAUDITED PRO FORMA CONSOLIDATED CONDENSED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS
(tables in millions, except share and per share amounts)

(1) Conversion of Common stock

For the purposes of the accompanying unaudited pro forma consolidated condensed financial statements, the separation of Viacom into New Viacom and CBS Corporation was accounted for as a spin-off of New Viacom. Following the separation, New Viacom will be accounted for as a discontinued operation by CBS Corporation. Assets and liabilities of New Viacom were accounted for at the historical book values carried by Viacom. No gain or loss will be recognized as a result of the separation.

On the effective date, each outstanding share of Viacom class A common stock will convert into 0.5 of a share of New Viacom class A common stock and 0.5 of a share of CBS Corporation class A common stock; each outstanding share of Viacom class B common stock will convert into 0.5 of a share of New Viacom class B common stock and 0.5 of a share of CBS Corporation class B common stock.

Any treasury stock held by Viacom or by any of its subsidiaries immediately prior to the separation will be automatically canceled and Viacom will not exchange those shares for any shares of New Viacom common stock or CBS Corporation common stock, with the exception of a limited number of shares held for benefit plans.

Adjustments to the unaudited pro forma consolidated condensed balance sheet at September 30, 2005 reflect:

- (a) Spin-off of New Viacom at historical book value.
- (b) Conversion of Viacom class A and class B common stock, par value $0.01, to CBS Corporation class A and class B common stock, par value $0.001.
- (c) Cancellation of treasury shares.

The unaudited pro forma consolidated condensed statements of operations reflect the following conversion of weighted average common stock outstanding:

For the Nine Months Ended September 30, 2005	Basic	Diluted
Viacom weighted average shares outstanding	1,598.3	1,607.2
Conversion ratio	0.5	0.5
Pro forma CBS weighted average shares outstanding	799.2	803.6
For the Year Ended December 31, 2004	Basic	Diluted
Viacom weighted average shares outstanding	1,714.4	1,714.4
Conversion ratio	0.5	0.5
Pro forma CBS weighted average shares outstanding	857.2	857.2

(2) Capitalization

Shortly prior to the separation, New Viacom will pay a special cash dividend to Viacom (to be renamed CBS Corporation) in an amount sufficient to establish CBS Corporation's opening debt balance from continuing operations at $7.0 billion, subject to certain adjustments. New Viacom has received $6.0 billion in financing commitments, subject to the satisfaction of customary conditions, for a bridge term facility that will be used to fund the special cash dividend and for general corporate purposes.

Based on Viacom's historical debt balance at September 30, 2005, the unaudited pro forma consolidated condensed financial statements reflect a special cash dividend of $3.4 billion. After taking into account acquisitions and dispositions of assets, operating cash flow and share repurchases, among other things, Viacom's debt balance is expected to be significantly higher at the time of the separation than at September 30, 2005, and, as a result, the special cash dividend is expected to be significantly higher than $3.4 billion. Based on Viacom's debt level as of November 21, 2005, the special cash dividend would approximate $4.8 billion.

The following table presents Viacom's historical outstanding debt balance and the calculation of pro forma special cash dividend at September 30, 2005:

Viacom Debt Balance at September 30, 2005:
Current portion of long-term debt, including capital lease obligations	$ 63.6
Long-term debt, including capital lease obligations	10,635.2
Discontinued operations debt, including capital lease obligations	153.2
Viacom total debt outstanding	10,852.0
Less:
Capital lease obligations allocated to New Viacom	328.8
Discontinued operations debt retained by CBS Corporation	153.2
Pro forma CBS Corporation opening debt balance	7,000.0
Pro forma special cash dividend at September 30, 2005	$ 3,370.0

The special cash dividend is expected to be funded by New Viacom's committed financing arrangements with a combination of fixed and floating rate debt with an assumed average life of 12.3 years and an average interest rate, based on current market conditions, of 5.35%. CBS Corporation intends to use the proceeds from the special cash dividend to repay a portion of its outstanding debt with an average interest rate of 4.21%, based on Viacom's short-term borrowing rate as of January 1, 2004, resulting in interest savings of $106.4 million for the nine months ended September 30, 2005 and $141.9 million for the year ended December 31, 2004. These amounts are reflected as adjustments to "Interest expense, net" in the unaudited pro forma consolidated condensed statements of operations. The estimate of interest savings is presented as if the special cash dividend occurred on January 1, 2004.

(3) Other Pro Forma Adjustments

Adjustments to accounts receivable, inventory, other assets, accounts payable and other liabilities on the unaudited pro forma consolidated condensed balance sheet, and adjustments to revenues and expenses on the unaudited pro forma consolidated condensed statements of operations primarily reflect the reversal of previously eliminated transactions between CBS Corporation and New Viacom.

(4) Provision for Income Tax

Adjustments to income tax expense on the unaudited pro forma consolidated condensed statements of operations are calculated at a blended statutory tax rate of 39.6% for the nine months ended September 30, 2005, 39.9% for the year ended December 31, 2004, 40.3% for the year ended December 31, 2003 and 40.5% for the year ended December 31, 2002.

(5) Items not included in the Unaudited Pro Forma Consolidated Condensed Financial Statements

(a) The carve-out historical statements of operations include allocations of Viacom corporate expenses and Paramount Pictures corporate overhead, including accounting, treasury, tax, legal, human resources, information systems and other related party transactions with Viacom. Subsequent to the separation, these expenses may be significantly different.

(b) Transaction expenses related to the separation will be allocated between New Viacom and CBS Corporation. These expenses have not been included as a pro forma adjustment in the consolidated condensed financial statements.

(c) All outstanding options to purchase shares of Viacom class B common stock and Restricted Stock Units ("RSU") of Viacom class B common stock held by current employees and directors of CBS Corporation will be converted into options to purchase CBS Corporation class B common stock and RSUs of CBS Corporation class B common stock, respectively. The conversion will be effected by formulas designed to preserve the intrinsic value of each option and the value of each RSU immediately prior to the separation.

(d) The Viacom board of directors has indicated its support for a plan under which CBS Corporation would offer its employees following the separation the opportunity, at each option holder's election, to exchange eligible employee stock options for RSUs of CBS Corporation. The voluntary exchange offer would, on a discounted-from-fair-value basis, exchange eligible unvested and vested stock options for fewer RSUs while also adding vesting requirements.

(e) The fair value of certain indemnifications that may be granted by CBS Corporation to New Viacom upon the separation are not included in the unaudited pro forma consolidated condensed financial statements.

(f) On November 3, 2005, Viacom announced that CBS Corporation is acquiring CSTV Networks, Inc. for approximately $325 million. The acquisition is expected to close in January 2006, after receipt of certain government approvals, and after the proposed separation of Viacom. At that time, consideration for the transaction will be principally in CBS Corporation class B common stock.

USE OF PROCEEDS

We will not receive any of the proceeds from the sale of shares by the Selling Stockholders. The Selling Stockholders will receive all of the net proceeds from the sale of the shares of Class B common stock offered by this prospectus.

DESCRIPTION OF CAPITAL STOCK

General

The following is a description of the principal terms of our capital stock. The following description is not meant to be complete and is qualified by reference to our certificate of incorporation and bylaws and the Delaware General Corporation Law. Copies of the CBS Corporation certificate of incorporation and bylaws are incorporated by reference herein. For more information on how you can obtain copies of these documents, see the section entitled "Where You Can Find Additional Information" on page 36. You are urged to read the our certificate of incorporation and bylaws in their entirety.

Our authorized capital stock consists of 5.4 billion shares of capital stock, of which:

- 375 million shares are designated as Class A common stock, par value $0.001 per share;
- 5 billion shares are designated as Class B common stock, par value $0.001 per share; and
- 25 million shares are designated as preferred stock, par value $0.001 per share.

Each of the Class A common stock and Class B common stock constitutes a class of common stock under the Delaware General Corporation Law.

None of the 25 million authorized shares of preferred stock is issued and outstanding.

Common Stock

All issued and outstanding shares of Class A common stock and Class B common stock are identical and the holders of such shares are entitled to the same rights and privileges, except as provided in the certificate of incorporation as described below.

Voting Rights. Holders of Class A common stock are entitled to one vote per share with respect to all matters on which the holders of common stock are entitled to vote and the affirmative vote of a majority of the outstanding shares of Class A common stock, voting separately as a class, is necessary to approve any merger or consolidation of CBS Corporation pursuant to which shares of common stock are converted into or exchanged for any other securities or consideration.

Holders of Class B common stock do not have any voting rights, except as required by Delaware law.

Generally, all matters to be voted on by our stockholders must be approved by a majority of the aggregate voting power of the shares of capital stock present in person or represented by proxy, except as required by Delaware law.

Dividends. Holders of Class A common stock and Class B common stock will share ratably in any cash dividend declared by the board of directors, subject to any preferential rights of any outstanding preferred stock. If the board of directors declares a dividend of any securities of CBS Corporation or another entity, the board of directors will determine whether the holders of Class A common stock and Class B common stock are to receive identical securities or to receive different classes or series of securities, but only to the extent such differences are consistent in all material respects with any differences between Class A common stock and Class B common stock.

Conversion. So long as there are 5,000 shares of Class A common stock outstanding, each share of Class A common stock will be convertible at the option of the holder of such share into one share of Class B common stock.

Liquidation Rights. In the event of a liquidation, dissolution or winding-up of CBS Corporation, all holders of common stock, regardless of class, will be entitled to share ratably in any assets available for distributions to holders of shares of common stock subject to the preferential rights of any outstanding preferred stock.

Split, Subdivision or Combination. In the event of a split, subdivision or combination of the outstanding shares of Class A common stock or Class B common stock, the outstanding shares of the other class of common stock will be divided proportionally.

Preemptive Rights. Shares of Class A common stock and Class B common stock do not entitle a holder to any preemptive rights enabling a holder to subscribe for or receive shares of stock of any class or any other securities convertible into shares of stock of any class of CBS Corporation. The board of directors possesses the power to issue shares of authorized but unissued Class A common stock and Class B common stock without further stockholder action, subject to the requirements of applicable law and stock exchanges. The number of authorized shares of Class A common stock and Class B common stock could be increased with the approval of the holders of a majority of the outstanding shares of Class A common stock and without any action by the holders of shares of Class B common stock.

Other Rights. Our certificate of incorporation provides that we may prohibit the ownership of, or redeem, shares of its capital stock in order to ensure compliance with, or prevent the applicability of limitations imposed by, the requirements of U.S. laws or regulations applicable to specified types of media companies.

Listing. Our Class A common stock and Class B common stock are listed on the New York Stock Exchange under the symbols "CBS.A" and "CBS," respectively.

Preferred Stock

The board of directors is empowered, without the approval of our stockholders, to cause shares of preferred stock to be issued from time to time in one or more series, with the numbers of shares of each series and the designations, preferences and relative, participating, optional, dividend and other special rights of the shares of each such series and the qualifications, limitations, restrictions, conditions and other characteristics thereof as fixed by the board of directors. Among the specific matters that may be determined by the board of directors are the following:

- the designation of each series;
- the number of shares of each series;
- the rate of dividends, if any;
- whether dividends, if any, shall be cumulative or noncumulative;
- the terms of redemption, if any;
- the rights of the series in the event of any voluntary or involuntary liquidation, dissolution or winding-up of the affairs of CBS Corporation;
- the rights and terms of conversion or exchange, if any;
- whether the preferred shares will be subject to the operation of sinking funds; and
- the voting rights, if any.

The board of directors may, without stockholder approval, issue preferred stock with voting and other rights that could have an adverse impact on the rights of the holders of Class A common stock and Class B common stock, including, without limitation, their voting power. However, the board of directors may not issue any preferred stock, or preferred stock that is convertible into or exchangeable for other securities, that, in the aggregate with all other outstanding shares of preferred stock, could elect a majority of the board of directors, unless such issuance has been approved by the holders of a majority of the outstanding shares of Class A common stock, voting separately as a class. There are no present plans to issue any shares of preferred stock. The ability of the board of directors to issue preferred stock without stockholder approval could have the effect of delaying, deferring or preventing a change in control of CBS Corporation or the removal of the existing management.

PLAN OF DISTRIBUTION

As used in this prospectus, "Selling Stockholders" include the Selling Stockholders named above and their donees, pledgees, transferees or other successors in interest selling shares received from the Selling Stockholders as a gift, pledge, partnership distribution or other non-sale related transfer after the date of this prospectus; provided that these non-sale related transfers comply with the terms of the registration rights agreement. We have been advised that the Selling Stockholders may effect sales of the shares of the Class B common stock directly, or indirectly by or through underwriters, agents or broker-dealers, and that the shares of the Class B common stock may be sold, at any time, or from time to time, by one or a combination of several of the following methods:

- on any national securities exchange or U.S. inter-dealer system of a registered national securities association on which the shares of Class B common stock may be listed or quoted at the time of the sale;
- purchases by underwriters, dealers and agents who may receive compensation in the form of underwriting discounts, concessions or commissions from the Selling Stockholder(s) and/or the purchasers of the shares for whom they may act as agent;
- one or more block transactions, including transactions in which the broker or dealer so engaged will attempt to sell the shares of the Class B common stock as agent but may position and resell a portion of the block as principal to facilitate the transaction, or in crosses, in which the same broker acts as an agent on both sides of the trade;
- ordinary brokerage transactions or transactions in which a broker solicits purchases;
- purchases by a broker-dealer or market maker, as principal, and resale by the broker-dealer for its account under this prospectus;
- the pledge of shares as security for any loan or obligation, including pledges to brokers or dealers who may from time to time effect distributions of the shares or other interests in the shares;
- short sales or transactions to cover short sales relating to the shares;
- privately negotiated transactions;
- the writing of put or call options, whether the options are listed on an options exchange or otherwise;
- distributions to creditors and equity holders of the Selling Stockholder(s); and
- any combination of the foregoing, or any other available means allowable under applicable law.

The Selling Stockholders will act independently of us in making decisions with respect to the timing, manner, and size of each sale. The aggregate proceeds to the Selling Stockholders from the sale of the Class B common stock offered by them will be the purchase price of the Class B common stock less discounts and commissions, if any. Each of the Selling Stockholders reserves the right to accept and, together with their agents from time to time, to reject, in whole or in part, any proposed purchase of shares of Class B common stock to be made directly or through agents. We will not receive any of the proceeds from the sale by the Selling Stockholders of the shares of Class B common stock.

Under the registration rights agreement, we granted the Selling Stockholders certain registration rights pertaining to shares of the Class B common stock received by the Selling Stockholders in connection with the acquisition of CSTV. The agreement provides for cross-indemnification of the Selling Stockholders and us, and its and our respective directors, officers, controlling persons, agents and employees against specific liabilities in connection with the offer and sale of the Class B common stock, including liabilities under the Securities Act.

We have agreed to bear all costs, expenses and fees in connection with the registration of the shares. The Selling Stockholders will bear all commissions and discounts, if any, attributable to the resale of the shares. We have agreed to maintain the effectiveness of this registration statement until the date on which the shares may be resold by non-affiliates of our company without registration by reason of Rule 144(k) under the Securities Act or any other rule of similar effect, subject to the terms of the registration rights agreement.

Subject to the terms of the registration rights agreement, including provisions relating to blackout periods, the Selling Stockholders may sell the shares covered by this prospectus from time to time, and may also decide not to sell all or any of the shares they are allowed to sell under this prospectus. The Selling Stockholders will act independently of us in making decisions regarding the timing, manner and size of each sale. The Selling Stockholders may effect sales by selling the shares directly to purchasers in individually negotiated transactions, or to or through broker-dealers, which may act as agents or principals. The Selling Stockholders may sell their shares at fixed prices, at market prices prevailing at the time of sale, at prices related to such prevailing market prices, at varying prices determined at the time of sale, or at privately negotiated prices.

Additionally, the Selling Stockholders may engage in hedging transactions with broker-dealers in connection with distributions of shares or otherwise. In those transactions, broker-dealers may engage in short sales of shares in the course of hedging the positions they assume with the Selling Stockholders. The Selling Stockholders also may sell shares short and redeliver shares to close out such short positions. The Selling Stockholders may also enter into option or other transactions with broker-dealers which require the delivery of shares to the broker-dealer. The broker-dealer may then resell or otherwise transfer such shares pursuant to this prospectus. The Selling Stockholders also may loan or pledge shares, and the borrower or pledgee may sell or otherwise transfer the shares so loaned or pledged pursuant to this prospectus. Such borrower or pledgee also may transfer those shares to investors in our securities or the Selling Stockholder's securities or in connection with the offering of other securities not covered by this prospectus.

From time to time, a Selling Stockholder may transfer, pledge, donate, grant a security interest in or assign its shares of Class B common stock to lenders or others and each of such persons will be deemed to be the "Selling Stockholder" for purposes of this prospectus. The number of shares of Class B common stock beneficially owned by such Selling Stockholder will decrease as, when and to the extent it takes such actions. The plan of distribution for a Selling Stockholder's shares of Class B common stock sold under this prospectus will otherwise remain unchanged, except that the transferees, pledgees, donees, secured parties, or other successors will be a Selling Stockholder hereunder. Any donee, pledgee, transferee, secured parties, or other successors that intends to offer or sell shares through this prospectus will be named in a prospectus supplement, if required.

The Selling Stockholder may enter into sale, forward sale and derivative transactions with third parties, or sell securities not covered by this prospectus to third parties in privately negotiated transactions. If the applicable prospectus supplement indicates, in connection with those sale, forward sale or derivative transactions, the third parties may sell securities covered by this prospectus and the applicable prospectus supplement, including in short sale transactions and by issuing securities that are not covered by this prospectus but are exchangeable for or represent beneficial interests in the Class B common stock. If so, the third party may use shares received under those sale, forward sale or derivative arrangements or shares pledged by the Selling Stockholders or borrowed from the Selling Stockholders or others to settle such third party sales or to close out any related open borrowings of stock. The third parties may deliver this prospectus in connection with any such transactions. The third party in such sale transactions will be an underwriter and, if not identified in this prospectus, will be identified in the applicable prospectus supplement (or a post-effective amendment).

Underwriters, broker-dealers or agents may receive compensation in the form of commissions, discounts or concessions from the Selling Stockholders. Underwriters, broker-dealers or agents may also receive compensation from the purchasers of shares for whom they act as agents or to whom they sell as principals, or both. Compensation as to a particular underwriter, broker-dealer or agent might be in excess of customary commissions and will be in amounts to be negotiated in connection with transactions involving shares. In effecting sales, broker-dealers engaged by the Selling Stockholder may arrange for other broker-dealers to participate in the resales.

In connection with sales of our Class B common stock covered hereby, the Selling Stockholders and any broker-dealers or agents and any other participating broker-dealers who execute sales for the Selling Stockholders may be deemed to be "underwriters" within the meaning of the Securities Act. Accordingly, any profits realized by the Selling Stockholders and any compensation earned by such broker-dealers or agents may be deemed to be underwriting discounts and commissions. Because the Selling Stockholders may be deemed to be an "underwriter" within the meaning of Section 2(11) of the Securities Act, the Selling Stockholders will be subject to the prospectus delivery requirements of that act. At the request of the Selling Stockholders, we will make copies of this prospectus (as it may be amended or supplemented from time to time) available to the Selling Stockholder for the purpose of satisfying the prospectus delivery requirements. In addition, any shares of the Selling Stockholder covered by this prospectus which qualify for sale pursuant to Rule 144 or Rule 144A under the Securities Act may be sold in open market transactions under Rule 144 or Rule 144A rather than pursuant to this prospectus.

Under applicable rules and regulations under the Exchange Act, any person engaged in the distribution of the shares may not simultaneously engage in market making activities with respect of the Class B common stock for a period of two business days prior to the commencement of the distribution. In addition, the Selling Stockholder will be subject to applicable provisions of the Exchange Act and the associated rules and regulations under the Exchange Act, including Regulation M, which provisions may limit the timing of purchases and sales of shares of our Class B common stock by the Selling Stockholders. These restrictions may affect the marketability of such shares. At the request of the Selling Stockholders, we will make copies of this prospectus available to the Selling Stockholders if there is a need to deliver copies of this prospectus to purchasers at or prior to the time of any sale of the shares.

In order to comply with applicable securities laws of some states, the shares may be sold in those jurisdictions only through registered or licensed brokers or dealers. In addition, in certain states the shares may not be sold unless they have been registered or qualified for sale in the applicable state or an exemption from the registration or qualification requirements is available.

If underwriters are used in a firm commitment underwriting, we and the Selling Stockholders will execute an underwriting agreement with those underwriters relating to the shares of Class B common stock that the Selling Stockholders will offer. Unless otherwise set forth in a prospectus supplement, the obligations of the underwriters to purchase these shares of Class B common stock will be subject to conditions. The underwriters will purchase the shares on a firm commitment basis and will be obligated to purchase all of the shares if any are purchased. The shares of Class B common stock subject to any such underwriting agreement will be acquired by the underwriters for their own account and may be resold by them from time to time in one or more transactions, including negotiated transactions, at a fixed public offering price or at varying prices determined at the time of sale. The underwriters may be deemed to have received compensation from the Selling Stockholders in the form of underwriting discounts or commissions and may also receive commissions from the purchasers of these shares for whom they may act as agent. The Selling Stockholders may authorize underwriters to solicit offers by institutions to purchase the shares of Class B common stock subject to the underwriting agreement from the Selling Stockholders at the public offering price stated in the prospectus supplement through delayed delivery contracts providing for payment and delivery on a specified date in the future. If the Selling Stockholders sell shares of Class B common stock through these delayed delivery contracts, the prospectus supplement will state that, as well as the conditions to which these delayed delivery contracts will be subject, and the commissions payable for that solicitation. The applicable prospectus supplement will set forth whether or not the underwriters may over-allot or effect transactions that stabilize, maintain or otherwise affect the market price of the shares of Class B common stock at levels above those that might otherwise prevail in the open market, including, for example, by entering stabilizing bids, effecting syndicate covering transactions or imposing penalty bids. Underwriters are not required to engage in any of these activities, or to continue these activities if commenced.

The underwriters, if any, may sell these shares to or through dealers. These dealers may arrange for other dealers to participate in sales and may receive compensation in the form of discounts, concessions or commissions from the underwriters and/or commissions from the purchasers for whom they may act as agent. Any public offering price and any discounts or concessions allowed or reallocated or paid to dealers may be changed from time to time and may exceed customary commissions.

If dealers are utilized in the sale of shares of Class B common stock, the Selling Stockholders will sell the shares to the dealers as principals. The dealers may then resell the shares to the public at varying prices to be determined by such dealers at the time of resale. The names of the dealers and the terms of the transaction will be set forth in a prospectus supplement, if required.

The Selling Stockholders may also sell shares of Class B common stock through agents designated by them from time to time. We will name any agent involved in the offer or sale of the shares and will list commissions payable by the Selling Stockholders to these agents in a prospectus supplement, if required. These agents will be acting on a best efforts basis to solicit purchases for the period of their appointment, unless we state otherwise in any required prospectus supplement.

We and the Selling Stockholders may indemnify underwriters, dealers or agents who participate in the distribution of securities against specified liabilities, including liabilities under the Securities Act, and agree to contribute to payments which these underwriters, dealers or agents may be required to make.

In connection with an underwritten offering of Class B common stock under this prospectus, the underwriters may purchase and sell securities in the open market. These transactions may include short sales, stabilizing transactions and purchases to cover positions created by short sales. Short sales involve the sale by the underwriters of a greater number of securities than they are required to purchase in an offering. Stabilizing transactions consist of certain bids or purchases made for the purpose of preventing or retarding a decline in the market price of the securities while an offering is in progress.

The underwriters also may impose a penalty bid. This occurs when a particular underwriter repays to the underwriters a portion of the underwriting discount received by it because the underwriters have repurchased securities sold by or for the account of that underwriter in stabilizing or short-covering transactions.

These activities by the underwriters may stabilize, maintain or otherwise affect the market price of the Class B common stock offered under this prospectus. As a result, the price of the Class B common stock may be higher than the price that otherwise might exist in the open market. If these activities are commenced, they may be discontinued by the underwriters at any time. These transactions may be effected on the New York Stock Exchange or other securities exchange, the Nasdaq National Market System or another automated quotation system, or in the over-the-counter market or otherwise.

At any time a particular offer of the shares of Class B common stock covered by this prospectus is made, a prospectus supplement, if required, will be distributed at the request of the Selling Stockholders. The supplement will set forth the specific terms of the offering of securities, including:

- the name of the Selling Stockholder and other participating broker-dealer(s);
- the number of shares of Class B common stock offered;
- the price such shares of Class B common stock are being sold;
- the proceeds to the Selling Stockholder from the sale of such shares;
- the specific plan of distribution for such shares of Class B common stock;
- the names of the underwriters or agents, if any;
- any underwriting discounts, agency fees or other compensation to underwriters or agents;
- any discounts or concessions allowed or paid to dealers; and
- any other facts material to the transaction.

DISCLOSURE OF THE SEC'S POSITION ON INDEMNIFICATION FOR SECURITIES ACT LIABILITIES

CBS Corporation is incorporated in the State of Delaware. Section 102(b)(7) of the Delaware General Corporation Law allows a corporation to include in its certificate of incorporation a provision eliminating or limiting the personal liability of a director to the corporation or its stockholders for monetary damages for breach of fiduciary duty as a director, except in cases where the director breached his duty of loyalty to the corporation or its stockholders, failed to act in good faith, engaged in intentional misconduct or a knowing violation of the law, willfully or negligently authorized the unlawful payment of a dividend or approved an unlawful stock redemption or repurchase or obtained an improper personal benefit. Our certificate of incorporation contains provisions that eliminate directors' personal liability, in certain circumstances.

Pursuant to our certificate of incorporation and bylaws, the corporation shall indemnify any person who was or is involved in or is threatened to be involved in any threatened, pending or completed action, suit or proceeding, whether civil, criminal, administrative or investigative, by reason of the fact that he is or was a director, officer or employee of CBS Corporation, or is or was serving at the request of CBS Corporation as a director, officer or employee (including trustee) of another corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust or other enterprise, to the fullest extent authorized by the Delaware General Corporation Law, as the same exists or may hereafter be amended, against judgments, fines, amounts paid in settlement and expenses (including attorneys' fees), actually and reasonably incurred by him in connection with such action, suit or proceeding. Notwithstanding the foregoing, except with respect to proceedings to enforce rights to indemnification and advancement of expenses, we shall indemnify an indemnitee in connection with a proceeding (or part thereof) initiated by the indemnitee, if and only if the board of directors of CBS Corporation authorized the bringing of the action, suit or proceeding (or part thereof) in advance of the commencement of the proceeding.

Pursuant to our certificate of incorporation and bylaws, to the extent that a present or former director, officer or employee of CBS Corporation has been successful on the merits or otherwise in defense of any action, suit or proceeding referred to above, or in defense of any claim, issue or matter therein, such person shall be indemnified against expenses (including attorneys' fees) actually and reasonably incurred by that person in connection therewith. The indemnification and advancement of expenses provided by, or granted pursuant to, the indemnification provisions of our certificate of incorporation and bylaws shall not be deemed exclusive of any other rights to which a person seeking indemnification or advancement of expenses may be entitled under any statute, bylaw, agreement, vote of stockholders or disinterested directors or otherwise, both as to action in that person's official capacity and as to action in another capacity while holding such office. Without limiting the foregoing, we are authorized to enter into an agreement with any director, officer or employee of CBS Corporation providing indemnification for such person against expenses, including attorneys' fees, judgments, fines and amounts paid in settlement that result from any threatened, pending or completed action, suit or proceeding, whether civil, criminal, administrative or investigative, including any action by or in the right of CBS Corporation, that arises by reason of the fact that such person is or was a director, officer or employee of CBS Corporation, or is or was serving at our request as a director, officer or employee of another corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust or other enterprise, to the full extent allowed by law, except that no such agreement shall provide for indemnification for any actions that constitute fraud, actual dishonesty or willful misconduct.

We may purchase and maintain insurance on behalf of any person who is or was a director, officer or employee of the Registrant, or is or was serving at our request as a director, officer or employee of another corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust or other enterprise against any liability asserted against him and incurred by him in any such capacity, or arising out of his status as such, whether or not we would have the power to indemnify him against such liability under the provisions of the certificate of incorporation.

Insofar as indemnification for liabilities arising under the Securities Act may be permitted to directors, officers and controlling persons of the Registrant pursuant to the foregoing provisions, or otherwise, we have been advised that in the opinion of the SEC such indemnification is against public policy as expressed in the Securities Act and is, therefore, unenforceable. In the event that a claim for indemnification against such liabilities (other than the payment by us of expenses incurred or paid by a director, officer or controlling person of CBS Corporation in the successful defense of any action, suit or proceeding) is asserted by such director, officer or controlling person in connection with the securities being registered, we will, unless in the opinion of its counsel the matter has been settled by controlling precedent, submit to a court of appropriate jurisdiction the question whether such indemnification by it is against public policy as expressed in the Securities Act and will be governed by the final adjudication of such issue.

ITEM 15. INDEMNIFICATION OF DIRECTORS AND OFFICERS.

The Registrant is incorporated in the State of Delaware. Section 102(b)(7) of the Delaware General Corporation Law allows a corporation to include in its certificate of incorporation a provision eliminating or limiting the personal liability of a director to the corporation or its stockholders for monetary damages for breach of fiduciary duty as a director, except in cases where the director breached his duty of loyalty to the corporation or its stockholders, failed to act in good faith, engaged in intentional misconduct or a knowing violation of the law, willfully or negligently authorized the unlawful payment of a dividend or approved an unlawful stock redemption or repurchase or obtained an improper personal benefit. The Registrant's certificate of incorporation contains provisions that eliminate directors' personal liability, in certain circumstances.

Pursuant to the Registrant's certificate of incorporation and bylaws, the corporation shall indemnify any person who was or is involved in or is threatened to be involved in any threatened, pending or completed action, suit or proceeding, whether civil, criminal, administrative or investigative, by reason of the fact that he is or was a director, officer or employee of the Registrant, or is or was serving at the request of the Registrant as a director, officer or employee (including trustee) of another corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust or other enterprise, to the fullest extent authorized by the Delaware General Corporation Law, as the same exists or may hereafter be amended, against judgments, fines, amounts paid in settlement and expenses (including attorneys' fees), actually and reasonably incurred by him in connection with such action, suit or proceeding. Notwithstanding the foregoing, except with respect to proceedings to enforce rights to indemnification and advancement of expenses, the Registrant shall indemnify an indemnitee in connection with a proceeding (or part thereof) initiated by the indemnitee, if and only if the board of directors of the Registrant authorized the bringing of the action, suit or proceeding (or part thereof) in advance of the commencement of the proceeding.

Pursuant to the Registrant's certificate of incorporation and bylaws, to the extent that a present or former director, officer or employee of the Registrant has been successful on the merits or otherwise in defense of any action, suit or proceeding referred to above, or in defense of any claim, issue or matter therein, such person shall be indemnified against expenses (including attorneys' fees) actually and reasonably incurred by that person in connection therewith. The indemnification and advancement of expenses provided by, or granted pursuant to, the indemnification provisions of the Registrant's certificate of incorporation and bylaws shall not be deemed exclusive of any other rights to which a person seeking indemnification or advancement of expenses may be entitled under any statute, bylaw, agreement, vote of stockholders or disinterested directors or otherwise, both as to action in that person's official capacity and as to action in another capacity while holding such office. Without limiting the foregoing, the Registrant is authorized to enter into an agreement with any director, officer or employee of such Registrant providing indemnification for such person against expenses, including attorneys' fees, judgments, fines and amounts paid in settlement that result from any threatened, pending or completed action, suit or proceeding, whether civil, criminal, administrative or investigative, including any action by or in the right of the Registrant, that arises by reason of the fact that such person is or was a director, officer or employee of the Registrant, or is or was serving at the request of the Registrant as a director, officer or employee of another corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust or other enterprise, to the full extent allowed by law, except that no such agreement shall provide for indemnification for any actions that constitute fraud, actual dishonesty or willful misconduct.

The Registrant may purchase and maintain insurance on behalf of any person who is or was a director, officer or employee of the Registrant, or is or was serving at the request of the Registrant as a director, officer or employee of another corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust or other enterprise against any liability asserted against him and incurred by him in any such capacity, or arising out of his status as such, whether or not the Registrant would have the power to indemnify him against such liability under the provisions of the certificate of incorporation.

ITEM 17. UNDERTAKINGS.

- (a) The undersigned Registrant hereby undertakes:
  - (1) To file, during any period in which offers or sales are being made of securities registered hereby, a post-effective amendment to this registration statement:
    - (i) to include any prospectus required by Section 10(a)(3) of the Securities Act of 1933;
    - (ii) to reflect in the prospectus any facts or events arising after the effective date of this registration statement (or the most recent post-effective amendment thereof) which, individually or in the aggregate, represent a fundamental change in the information set forth in this registration statement. Notwithstanding the foregoing, any increase or decrease in volume of securities offered (if the total dollar value of securities offered would not exceed that which was registered) and any deviation from the low or high end of the estimated maximum offering range may be reflected in the form of prospectus filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission pursuant to Rule 424(b) if, in the aggregate, the changes in volume and price represent no more than a 20 percent change in the maximum aggregate offering price set forth in the "Calculation of Registration Fee" table in the effective registration statement;
    - (iii) to include any material information with respect to the plan of distribution not previously disclosed in this registration statement or any material change to such information in this registration statement; provided, however, that paragraphs (i), (ii) and (iii) above do not apply if the information required to be included in a post-effective amendment by those paragraphs is contained in periodic reports filed with or furnished to the Securities and Exchange Commission by the Registrant pursuant to Section 13 or Section 15(d) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 that are incorporated by reference in this registration statement, or is contained in a form of prospectus filed pursuant to Rule 424(b) that is part of the registration statement.
  - (2) That, for the purpose of determining any liability under the Securities Act of 1933, each such post-effective amendment shall be deemed to be a new registration statement relating to the securities offered herein, and the offering of such securities at that time shall be deemed to be the initial bona fide offering thereof.
  - (3) To remove from registration by means of a post-effective amendment any of the securities being registered which remain unsold at the termination of the offering.
  - (4) That, for the purpose of determining liability under the Securities Act of 1933 to any purchaser:
    - (A) Each prospectus filed by the Registrant pursuant to Rule 424(b)(3) shall be deemed to be part of this registration statement as of the date the filed prospectus was deemed part of and included in this registration statement; and
    - (B) Each prospectus required to be filed pursuant to Rule 424(b)(2), (b)(5), or (b)(7) as part of a registration statement in reliance on Rule 430B relating to an offering made pursuant to Rule 415(a)(1)(i), (vii) or (x) for the purpose of providing the information required by Section 10(a) of the Securities Act of 1933 shall be deemed to be part of and included in this registration statement as of the earlier of the date such form of prospectus is first used after effectiveness or the date of the first contract of sale of securities in the offering described in the prospectus. As provided in Rule 430B, for liability purposes of the issuer and any person that is at that date an underwriter, such date shall be deemed to be a new effective date of this registration statement relating to the securities in this registration statement to which that prospectus relates, and the offering of such securities at that time shall be deemed to be the initial bona fide offering thereof. Provided, however, that no statement made in a registration statement or a prospectus that is part of this registration statement or made in a document incorporated or deemed incorporated by reference into this registration statement or prospectus that is part of this registration statement will, as to a purchaser with a time of contract of sale prior to such effective date, supersede or modify any statement that was made in this registration statement or prospectus that was part of this registration statement or made in any such document immediately prior to such effective date.

- (5) That, for the purpose of determining liability of the Registrant under the Securities Act of 1933 to any purchaser in the initial distribution of the securities:

The undersigned Registrant undertakes that in a primary offering of securities of the undersigned Registrant pursuant to this registration statement, regardless of the underwriting method used to sell the securities to the purchaser, if the securities are offered or sold to such purchaser by means of any of the following communications, the undersigned Registrant will be a seller to the purchaser and will be considered to offer or sell such securities to such purchaser:

- (i) Any preliminary prospectus or prospectus of the undersigned Registrant relating to the offering required to be filed pursuant to Rule 424;
  - (ii) Any free writing prospectus relating to the offering prepared by or on behalf of the undersigned Registrant or used or referred to by the undersigned Registrant;
  - (iii) The portion of any other free writing prospectus relating to the offering containing material information about the undersigned Registrant or its securities provided by or on behalf of the undersigned Registrant; and
  - (iv) Any other communication that is an offer in the offering made by the undersigned Registrant to the purchaser.
- (b) The undersigned Registrant hereby undertakes that, for purposes of determining any liability under the Securities Act of 1933, each filing of the Registrant's annual report pursuant to Section 13(a) or Section 15(d) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 (and, where applicable, each filing of an employee benefit plan's annual report pursuant to Section 15(d) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934) that is incorporated by reference in this registration statement shall be deemed to be a new registration statement relating to the securities offered therein, and the offering of such securities at that time shall be deemed to be the initial bona fide offering thereof.
- (c) Insofar as indemnification for liabilities arising under the Securities Act of 1933 may be permitted to directors, officers and controlling persons of the Registrant pursuant to the foregoing provisions, or otherwise, the Registrant has been advised that in the opinion of the Securities and Exchange Commission such indemnification is against public policy as expressed in the Securities Act of 1933 and is, therefore, unenforceable. In the event that a claim for indemnification against such liabilities (other than the payment by the Registrant of expenses incurred or paid by a director, officer or controlling person of the Registrant in the successful defense of any action, suit or proceeding) is asserted by such director, officer or controlling person in connection with the securities being registered, the Registrant will, unless in the opinion of its counsel the matter has been settled by controlling precedent, submit to a court of appropriate jurisdiction the question whether such indemnification by it is against public policy as expressed in the Securities Act of 1933 and will be governed by the final adjudication of such issue.

SIGNATURES

Pursuant to the requirements of the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, the Registrant has duly caused this Registration Statement to be signed on its behalf by the undersigned, thereunto duly authorized, in the city of New York, State of New York on February 1, 2006.

ARTICLE 2 REGISTRATION RIGHTS

SECTION 2.01. Shelf Registration. (a) In accordance with the terms of the Merger Agreement, the Company shall prepare and file with the Commission a registration statement on Form S-3 in connection with the resale of the CBS Class B Common Stock issued under the Merger Agreement. The Company shall use its commercially reasonable efforts to have the Shelf Registration Statement declared effective under the Securities Act as promptly as practicable after such filing; provided, however, such effective date shall in no event be later than the date the shares of CBS Class B Common Stock are first issued to the Stockholders as Merger Consideration (the "Issuance Date"). The Company will advise the Holder Representatives, promptly after it receives notice thereof, of the time when the Shelf Registration Statement has become effective or any supplement or amendment has been filed, the issuance of any stop order, the suspension of the qualification of the CBS Class B Common Stock issuable in connection with the Merger for offering of sale in any jurisdiction, or any request by the Commission for amendment of the Shelf Registration Statement or comments thereon and responses thereto or requests by the Commission for additional information. If at any time following the Effective Time any information relating to the Stockholders or the Company, or any of their respective Affiliates, officers or directors, should be discovered by any or all of the Stockholders or the Company which should be set forth in an amendment or supplement to the Shelf Registration Statement, so that such document would not include any misstatement of a material fact or omit to state any material fact necessary to make the statements therein not misleading, the party which discovers such information shall promptly notify the other parties hereto and an appropriate amendment or supplement describing such information shall be filed with the Commission, subject to Blockage Periods as provided below. Notwithstanding any provision in this Section 2.01 to the contrary, the Company shall not be obligated to provide the Holder Representatives or any Stockholder with copies of comment letters received by the Company from the Commission or any of the Company's responses thereto, except to the extent such comment letter or response relates directly to a Stockholder.

(b) Subject to the terms of this Agreement, the Company agrees to use reasonable best efforts to keep the Shelf Registration Statement continuously effective from the date the Commission declares the Shelf Registration Statement effective until the first date that the Holders cease to hold any Registrable Stock.

(c) If, and only if, (i) there has been or there is pending a material development or change in the business, affairs or prospects of the Company, (ii) the Company's U.S. securities counsel has advised the Company that such material development or change should be disclosed in the Shelf Registration Statement, the prospectus included therein, or an amendment or supplement thereto in order to ensure that the Shelf Registration Statement and such prospectus, as amended or supplemented, will not contain any misstatement of a material fact or omit to state a material fact required to be stated therein or necessary to make the statements therein not misleading, and (iii) in the good faith judgment of any officer of the Company, disclosure of such development or change would be materially disadvantageous to the Company, then the Company may deliver written notification to the Holder Representatives on behalf of all Holders that Registrable Stock may not be sold pursuant to the Shelf Registrations Statement (a "Blockage Notice"). Upon receipt of a Blockage Notice, the Holder Representatives shall notify all Holders of such Blockage Notice. No Holder of Registrable Stock shall sell any Registrable Stock pursuant to the Shelf Registration Statement for the period (the "Blockage Period") beginning on the date that is two (2) trading days after the date such Blockage Notice was received by the Holder Representatives and ending on the earlier of (i) the date on which the Company notifies the Holder Representatives that the Blockage Period has ended (and the Company agrees promptly to notify the Holder Representatives if the circumstances described in clause (i) or (ii) of the first sentence of this paragraph giving rise to such Blockage Period no longer apply) and (ii) thirty (30) days following delivery of a Blockage Notice. The Company shall promptly prepare and file any amendment or supplement to the Shelf Registration Statement or the prospectus included therein necessary so that at the conclusion of the Blockage Period, the Shelf Registration Statement and the prospectus included therein do not contain any misstatements of a material fact or omit to state a material fact required to be stated therein or necessary to make the statements therein not misleading and notify the Holder Representatives of such amendment or supplement and of the conclusion of the Blockage Period. Notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary, there shall be not less than 270 days in any consecutive 360-day period during which no Blockage Period is in effect.

(d) If no Blockage Notice is delivered, the Company will cooperate with the Selling Holders in preparing a supplement to the prospectus included in the Shelf Registration Statement to reflect the plan of distribution of the Registrable Stock to be sold. Notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary, the Company shall not deliver a Blockage Notice less than five (5) trading days after the expiration of the Blockage Period.

SECTION 2.02. Demand Registration. (a) If at any time after the Issuance Date, the Shelf Registration Statement referred to in Section 2.01 is not effective (subject to any permitted postponement pursuant to Section 2.03), the Majority Holders may request in writing that the Company effect the registration under the Securities Act of any or all of the Registrable Stock held by such requesting Holders, which notice shall specify the intended method or methods of disposition of such Registrable Stock. Except as otherwise provided herein, the Company shall prepare and (within forty-five (45) days after such request has been given) file with the Commission a registration statement with respect to (x) all Registrable Stock included in such request and (y) all Registrable Stock included in any request delivered by the Requesting Holders pursuant to Section 2.02(f), and thereafter use its reasonable best efforts to effect the registration under the Securities Act and applicable state securities laws of such Registrable Stock for disposition in accordance with the intended method or methods of disposition stated in such request; provided that the Company shall not be obligated to effect any such registration pursuant to this Section 2.02(a) if (i) within thirty (30) days of receipt of a written request from the Requesting Holders, the Company gives notice to the Requesting Holders that the Company intends to effect an offering of the Company's securities for the Company's account, the Company's managing underwriter or placement agent advises the Company not to include all Registrable Stock in such offering and the Company has taken substantial steps and is proceeding with reasonable diligence to effect such offering (provided that in such case, the Company shall, subject to Section 2.04(c), use its reasonable best efforts to include in the registration relating to such public offering all Registrable Stock requested to be included by any Holder pursuant to Section 2.04(c) and, in the event Section 2.04(c) applies to such registration, shall include in such registration a number of shares of such Registrable Stock that is equal to at least 25% of the shares of Common Stock (on an as converted basis, with respect to securities convertible into or exchangeable for Common Stock to be included in such registration) that the Company is registering pursuant to such registration) or (ii) the Requesting Holders propose to sell less than all Registrable Stock then held by them pursuant to such registration statement and the estimated aggregate price to the public of such Registrable Stock is less than forty million dollars ($40,000,000).

(b) The Majority Holders may collectively exercise their rights under this Section 2.02 on not more than three occasions.

(c) The Holders shall not have the right to require the filing of a registration statement pursuant to this Section 2.02 while any registration statement that has been filed pursuant to this Section 2.02 has yet to become effective or within six (6) months following the effectiveness of any registration statement on Form S-1 that was filed pursuant to this Section 2.02.

(d) A registration pursuant to this Section 2.02 shall not be deemed to have been effected (and, therefore, rights of a Requesting Holder shall be deemed not to have been exercised for purposes of paragraph (a) above) (i) if it has not become effective, (ii) if after it has become effective such registration (or the use of the prospectus contained in such registration statement) is (A) interfered with by any stop order, injunction or other order or requirement of the Commission or other governmental agency or court for any reason other than a misrepresentation or an omission by any Holder or underwriter for such Holder or (B) delayed, withdrawn, suspended or terminated and, in each case, as a result thereof, the Registrable Stock requested to be registered cannot be completely distributed in accordance with the plan of distribution set forth in the related registration statement (until such time as the Registrable Stock requested to be registered may be completely distributed in accordance with the plan of distribution set forth in the related registration statement) or (iii) if the conditions to closing specified in any purchase agreement or underwriting agreement containing customary terms for secondary offerings by selling securityholders entered into by the Company in connection with such registration are not satisfied or waived other than because of some act or omission by any Holder or underwriter for such Holder.

(e) In the event that any registration pursuant to Section 2.02(a) shall involve, in whole or in part, an underwritten offering, the Holders of a majority of the Registrable Stock to be registered shall select the lead underwriter or underwriters (which selection or selections shall be subject to the approval of the Company, which approval shall not be unreasonably withheld), as well as counsel for the Holders, with respect to such registration. The parties hereto acknowledge and agree that the Company shall have sole discretion with respect to the selection of underwriters for any registration pursuant to Section 2.04 that involves an underwritten offering.

(f) Upon receipt of a written request from the Initial Requesting Holders pursuant to the first sentence of Section 2.02(a), the Company shall promptly give written notice of such requested registration to the Holder Representatives and the intended method or methods of disposition stated in such request. Each other Holder may, by written notice to the Company to be delivered within ten (10) days of the delivery of the Company's notice, request the inclusion in such registration of any Registrable Stock held by such other Holder. The Company shall promptly after the expiration of such 10-day period notify the Holder Representatives of (i) the identity of the other Requesting Holders and (ii) the number of shares of Registrable Stock requested to be included therein by each Requesting Holder. In the event that the Initial Requesting Holders intend to distribute the Registrable Stock covered by their request by means of an underwriting, the right of any Holder to include all or any portion of its Registrable Stock in such registration shall be conditioned upon such Holder's participation in such underwriting and the inclusion of such Holder's Registrable Stock in the underwriting to the extent provided herein. All Holders proposing to distribute all or any portion of their Registrable Stock through such underwriting shall enter into an underwriting agreement in customary form (for secondary sales by selling stockholders) with the underwriter or underwriters selected pursuant to Section 2.02(e).

(g) The Company shall have the right to cause the registration of additional equity securities for sale for the account of any Person that is not a Holder (including the Company and any directors, officers or employees of the Company (such additional equity securities, the "Additional Equity Securities")) in any registration of Registrable Stock requested by the Requesting Holders; provided, that if such registration is to be an underwritten registration and such Requesting Holders are advised in writing (with a copy to the Company) by a nationally recognized investment banking firm selected pursuant to paragraph (e) above that, in such firm's good faith view, all or a part of the equity securities to be included in such registration (including any Additional Equity Securities) cannot be sold and the inclusion of all or part of the equity securities that would otherwise be included in such registration would be likely to have an adverse effect on the price, timing or distribution of the offering and sale of the equity securities to be included in such registration, then the Company shall exclude from such registration such Additional Equity Securities or part thereof, to the nearest extent possible on a pro rata basis, in which case the Company shall include in such registration:

(i) first, up to the full number of shares of Registrable Stock and

(ii) second, up to the full number of any other Additional Equity Securities, if any, in excess of the Registrable Stock to be sold in such offering which, in the good faith view of such investment banking firm, can be so sold without so adversely affecting such offering in the manner described above.

In the event that the number of shares of Registrable Stock requested to be included in a registration statement by the Requesting Holders that will not include any Additional Equity Securities exceeds the number which, in the good faith view of such investment banking firm, can be sold without adversely affecting the price, timing, distribution or sale of securities in the offering, the number shall be allocated pro rata among all of the Requesting Holders on the basis of the relative number of shares of Registrable Stock then held by each such Requesting Holder (with any number in excess of a Requesting Holder's request reallocated among the remaining Requesting Holders in a like manner).

SECTION 2.03. Postponement. The Company shall be entitled to postpone for a reasonable period of time up to thirty (30) days and no more than ninety (90) days in any consecutive 12-month period; provided, however, the Company shall not postpone within less than five (5) trading days after the immediately prior postponement, the filing of any registration statement or any amendment or supplement thereto otherwise required to be prepared and filed by it pursuant to Section 2.01 (except in the case of the Shelf Registration Statement which must be effective no later than the Issuance Date in accordance with such Section 2.01) or 2.02 if the Company furnishes to the Holder Representatives an officer's certificate executed by the Chief Executive Officer, Chief Financial Officer or any other duly authorized officer of the Company ("Officer's Certificate") stating that the Company or any of its Subsidiaries is engaged in confidential negotiations or other confidential business activities (or any such executive officer determines that the Company is at such time otherwise in possession of material non-public information with respect to the Company or any of its Subsidiaries), disclosure of which would be required in such registration statement, and the Company determines in good faith that such disclosure would be materially detrimental to the Company and its stockholders other than the Holders. A deferral of the filing of a registration statement pursuant to this Section 2.03 shall be lifted, and notice to the Holder Representatives shall promptly be given and the registration statement shall be filed forthwith, if the negotiations or other activities are terminated or publicly disclosed (or such material non-public information has been publicly disclosed by the Company). In order to defer the filing of a registration statement pursuant to this Section 2.03, the Company shall promptly (but in any event within ten (10) days), upon determining to seek such deferral, deliver to the Holder Representatives (subject to the Holders entering into a customary confidentiality obligation as to such information, which the Holders hereby agree to do) the Officer's Certificate stating that the Company is deferring such filing pursuant to this Section 2.03 and an approximation of the anticipated delay.

SECTION 2.04. Piggyback Registration. (a) In the event that the Company proposes to register any of its Common Stock, any other of its equity securities or securities convertible into or exchangeable for its equity securities (collectively, including Common Stock, "Other Securities") under the Securities Act, whether or not for sale for its own account, in a manner that would permit registration of Registrable Stock for sale for cash to the public under the Securities Act, it shall so long as Holders own Registrable Stock, give prompt written notice to the Holder Representatives of its intention to do so and of the rights of such Holder under this Section 2.04. Subject to the terms and conditions hereof, such notice shall offer each such Holder the opportunity to include in such registration statement such number of shares of Registrable Stock as such Holder may request. Upon the written request of any such Holder made within ten (10) days after the receipt of the Company's notice (which request shall specify the number of shares of Registrable Stock intended to be disposed of and the intended method of disposition thereof), the Company shall use its reasonable best efforts to effect, in connection with the registration of the Other Securities, the registration under the Securities Act of all Registrable Stock which the Company has been so requested to register, to the extent required to permit the disposition (in accordance with such intended methods thereof) of the Registrable Stock so requested to be registered. Notwithstanding the immediately preceding sentence, in the event that the holders of the Other Securities intend to distribute the Other Securities covered by such registration by means of an underwriting, the right of any Holder to include all or any portion of its Registrable Stock in such registration shall be conditioned upon such Holder's participation in such underwriting and the inclusion of such Holder's Registrable Stock in the underwriting to the extent provided herein. All Holders proposing to distribute all or any portion of their Registrable Stock through such underwriting shall enter into an underwriting agreement in customary form (for secondary sales by selling stockholders) with the underwriter or underwriters.

(b) If, at any time after giving a written notice of its intention to register any Other Securities and prior to the effective date of the registration statement filed in connection with such registration, the Company shall determine for any reason not to register the Other Securities, the Company may, at its election, give written notice of such determination to the Holder Representatives and thereupon the Company shall be relieved of its obligation to register such Registrable Stock in connection with the registration of such Other Securities, without prejudice, however, to the rights of the Holders immediately to request that such registration be effected as a registration under Section 2.02 to the extent permitted thereunder.

(c) If the registration referred to in the first sentence of Section 2.04(a) is to be an underwritten registration and a nationally recognized investment banking firm selected by the Company advises the Company in writing that, in such firm's good faith view, the inclusion of all or a part of such Registrable Stock in such registration would be likely to have an adverse effect upon the price, timing or distribution of the offering and sale of the Other Securities then contemplated, the Company shall include in such registration:

(i) first, all Other Securities the Company proposes to sell for its own account,

(ii) second, any securities of the Company to be registered pursuant to "demand" registration rights existing as of the date hereof, and

(iii) third, up to the full number of shares of Registrable Stock held by Holders of Registrable Stock in excess of the number of Other Securities to be sold in such offering which, in the good faith view of such investment banking firm, can be so sold without so adversely affecting such offering in the manner described above.

(d) The Company shall not be required to effect any registration of Registrable Stock under this Section 2.04 incidental to the registration of any of its securities in connection with mergers, acquisitions, exchange offers, subscription offers, dividend reinvestment plans or stock option or other executive or employee benefit or compensation plans or in connection with the filing of a Form S-4 or Form S-8 registration statement.

(e) No registration of Registrable Stock effected under this Section 2.04 shall relieve the Company of its obligation to effect a registration of Registrable Stock pursuant to Section 2.01 or 2.02.

SECTION 2.05. Expenses. Except as provided herein, the Company shall pay all Registration Expenses under this Article 2 with respect to a particular offering (or proposed offering). Each Selling Holder shall bear the fees and expenses of its own counsel as well as all underwriting discounts and commissions, brokerage fees and taxes, except that reasonable fees and expenses of one counsel representing all Selling Holders selected by the Selling Holders holding a majority of the Registrable Stock included in the relevant registration statement, as applicable, will constitute Registration Expenses.

SECTION 2.06. Registration and Qualification. If the Company is required to effect the registration of any Registrable Stock under the Securities Act as provided in Section 2.01, 2.02 or 2.04, the Company shall as promptly as practicable, but subject to the other provisions of this Agreement:

(a) prepare, file and use its reasonable best efforts to cause to become effective a registration statement under the Securities Act relating to the Registrable Stock to be offered in accordance with the intended method of disposition thereof;

(b) prepare and file with the Commission such amendments and supplements to such registration statement and the prospectus used in connection therewith as may be necessary to keep such registration statement continuously effective and to comply with the provisions of the Securities Act with respect to the disposition of all such Registrable Stock until such time as all of such Registrable Stock have been disposed of in accordance with the intended methods of disposition set forth in such registration statement; provided that the Company will, at least five (5) Business Days prior to filing a registration statement or prospectus or any amendment or supplement thereto, furnish to the Holder Representatives copies of such registration statement or prospectus (or amendment or supplement) as proposed to be filed (including, upon the request of such Holder, documents to be incorporated by reference therein) which documents will be subject to the reasonable review and comments of such Holder (and its attorneys) during such 5 business-day period and the

such Holder to which such Holder shall reasonably object in writing; it being agreed that there is no need to pre-deliver or give a right to review of any Exchange Act filing that is fully incorporated by reference;

(c) furnish to the Holder Representatives and to any underwriter of such Registrable Stock such number of conformed copies of such registration statement and of each such amendment and supplement thereto (in each case including all exhibits), such number of copies of the prospectus included in such registration statement (including each preliminary prospectus and any summary prospectus), in conformity with the requirements of the Securities Act, such documents incorporated by reference in such registration statement or prospectus, and such other documents as the Selling Holders or such underwriter may reasonably request, and, upon the request of the Selling Holders or such underwriter, a copy of any and all transmittal letters or other correspondence to or received from, the Commission or any other governmental agency or self-regulatory body or other body having jurisdiction (including any domestic or foreign securities exchange) relating to such offering;

(d) after the filing of the registration statement, promptly notify the Holder Representatives in writing of the effectiveness thereof and of any stop order issued or, to the knowledge of the Company, threatened by the Commission and use its reasonable best efforts to prevent the entry of such stop order or to promptly remove it if entered and promptly notify the Holder Representatives of such lifting or withdrawal of such order;

(e) use its reasonable best efforts to register or qualify all Registrable Stock covered by such registration statement under the securities or blue sky laws of such U.S. jurisdictions as may be necessary and as the Selling Holders or any underwriter of such Registrable Stock shall reasonably request, and use its reasonable best efforts to obtain all appropriate registrations, permits and consents in connection therewith, and do any and all other acts and things which may be reasonably necessary or advisable to enable the Selling Holders or any such underwriter to consummate the disposition in such jurisdictions of the Registrable Stock covered by such registration statement; provided that the Company shall not for any such purpose be required to qualify generally to do business as a foreign corporation in any such jurisdiction wherein it is not so qualified or to consent to general service of process in any such jurisdiction or become subject to taxation in any such jurisdiction;

(f) use its reasonable best efforts in the event of an underwritten offering to furnish to the Holder Representatives and to any underwriter of such Registrable Stock (i) an opinion of counsel for the Company addressed to each underwriter and each Selling Holder and dated the date of the closing under the underwriting agreement and (ii) a “cold comfort” letter addressed to each underwriter and each Selling Holder and signed by the independent public accountants who have audited the financial statements of the Company included in such registration statement, in each such case covering substantially the same matters with respect to such registration statement (and the prospectus included therein) as are customarily covered in opinions of issuer’s counsel and in accountants’ letters delivered to underwriters in connection with the consummation of underwritten secondary public offerings of securities by selling securityholders;

(g) as promptly as practicable, notify the Holder Representatives in writing (i) at any time when a prospectus relating to a registration pursuant to Section 2.01, Section 2.02 or Section 2.04 is required to be delivered under the Securities Act of the happening of any event as a result of which the prospectus included in such registration statement, as then in effect, includes an untrue statement of a material fact or omits to state any material fact required to be stated therein or necessary to make the statements therein, in light of the circumstances under which they were made, not misleading, and (ii) of any request by the Commission or any other regulatory body or other body having jurisdiction for any amendment of or supplement to any registration statement or other document relating to such offering, and in either such case, at the request of the Selling Holders (but subject to Section 2.03) prepare and furnish to the Holder Representatives as promptly as practicable a reasonable number of copies of a supplement to or an amendment of such prospectus as may be necessary so that, as thereafter delivered to the purchasers of such Registrable Stock, such prospectus shall not include an untrue statement of a material fact or omit to state a material fact required to be stated therein or necessary to make the statements therein, in light of the circumstances under which they are made, not misleading (and the Selling Holders agree to immediately discontinue use (and cause each other Person acting on its behalf to immediately discontinue use) of the prospectus included in such registration statement following receipt of such notice until such time as such prospectus shall have been so amended or supplemented or such time as the Company shall have provided the Holder Representatives with a subsequent notice to the effect that such prospectus may again be used);

(h) if requested by the lead or managing underwriters or Selling Holders, use its reasonable best efforts to list all such Registrable Stock covered by such registration on each securities exchange and automated interdealer quotation system on which the Common Stock is then listed; upon the Selling Holders’ reasonable request, send appropriate officers of the Company to attend customary “road shows” and analyst and investor presentations scheduled in connection with any such underwritten offering of Registrable Stock; provided, however, that attending such road show would not unduly interfere with the operation of the Company; and furnish for delivery in connection with the closing of any offering of Registrable Stock pursuant to a registration effected pursuant to Section 2.01, Section 2.02 or Section 2.04 unlegended certificates representing ownership of the Registrable Stock being sold in such denominations as shall be requested by the Selling Holders or the underwriters.

In addition, each Holder agrees that (i) in connection with any registration of Registrable Stock pursuant to this Article 2 it will timely provide all information reasonably necessary with respect to such Holder and its plan of distribution, for such registration of Registrable Stock, (ii) failure to provide such information will postpone the Company’s obligations to such Holder for the applicable registration until such information is provided and (iii) the Company will have no obligation to update or amend selling stockholders’ information in any filing more frequently than every 90 days, if such update would require a post-effective amendment. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Article 2, the Company shall not be obligated to effect any offering by means of an underwritten offering (and, without limiting the generality of the foregoing, the Company shall not be obligated to comply with Section 2.07 and paragraphs (f) and (h) of Section 2.06) unless the estimated aggregate price to the public of the securities to be sold thereunder are in excess of forty million dollars ($40,000,000).

SECTION 2.07. Underwriting; Due Diligence. (a) If requested by the underwriters for any underwritten offering of Registrable Stock pursuant to a registration requested under this Article 2, the Company shall enter into an underwriting agreement with such underwriters for such offering, which agreement will contain such representations and warranties and covenants by the Company and such other terms and provisions as are customarily contained in underwriting agreements with respect to secondary distributions by selling securityholders, including indemnification and contribution provisions substantially to the effect and to the extent provided in Section 2.08, and agreements as to the provision of opinions of counsel and accountants' letters to such underwriters and Selling Holders the effect and to the extent provided in Section 2.06(f). The Selling Holders on whose behalf the Registrable Stock are to be distributed by such underwriters shall be parties to any such underwriting agreement and the representations and warranties by, and the other agreements on the part of, the Company to and for the benefit of such underwriters, shall also be made to and for the benefit of such Selling Holders. Such underwriting agreement shall also contain such representations and warranties and covenants and indemnification by such Selling Holders and underwriters and such other terms and provisions as are customarily contained in underwriting agreements with respect to secondary distributions on the part of shareholders, including indemnification and contribution provisions substantially to the effect and to the extent provided in Section 2.08. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary herein, such underwriting agreement shall not require the Selling Holders to have any liability with respect to the representations made by, the operations of or the disclosures made by the Company.

(b) In connection with the preparation and filing of each registration statement registering Registrable Stock under the Securities Act under this Article 2, upon entering into a confidentiality agreement with the Company that is in customary form for underwritten public offerings and reasonably satisfactory to the Company, the Company shall give the underwriters, if any, and underwriters' counsel, and counsel for the Holders as selected pursuant to Section 2.02(e) or by the Selling Holders holding a majority of the Registrable Stock included in the relevant registration statement, as applicable, such reasonable and customary access to its books, records and properties and such opportunities to discuss the business and affairs of the Company with its officers and the independent public accountants who have audited the financial statements of the Company as shall be necessary, in the reasonable opinion of such underwriters, such underwriters' counsel or such counsel for the Holders, to conduct a reasonable investigation within the meaning of the Securities Act; provided that such underwriters, such underwriters' counsel and such counsel for the Holders shall use their reasonable best efforts to coordinate any such investigation of the books, records and properties of the Company and any such discussions with the Company's officers and accountants so that all such investigations occur at the same time and all such discussions occur at the same time.

SECTION 2.08. Indemnification and Contribution. (a) The Company agrees to indemnify and hold harmless each Selling Holder and each Person, if any, who controls each Selling Holder within the meaning of either Section 15 of the Securities Act or Section 20 of the Exchange Act, and the agents, employees, officers and directors of such Holder and control persons from and against any and all losses, claims, damages and liabilities (including, subject to Section 2.08(c), any reasonable legal or other costs, fees and expenses reasonably incurred in connection with defending or investigating any such action or claim) insofar as such losses, claims, damages or liabilities are caused by any untrue statement or alleged untrue statement of a material fact contained in any registration statement filed by the Company pursuant to this Agreement at the time it became effective or any amendment thereof, any preliminary prospectus (as amended or supplemented if the Company shall have furnished any amendments or supplements thereto) or prospectus or free writing prospectus or materials (in each case, as amended or supplemented if the Company shall have furnished any amendments or supplements thereto) relating to the Registrable Stock, or caused by any omission or alleged omission to state therein a material fact required to be stated therein or necessary to make the statements therein not misleading, except insofar as such losses, claims, damages or liabilities are caused by any such untrue statement or omission or alleged untrue statement or omission which is based upon information relating to a Selling Holder or underwriter which is furnished to the Company in writing by or on behalf of such Selling Holder or underwriter expressly for use therein. The Company also agrees to indemnify any underwriter of the Registrable Stock so offered and each Person, if any, who controls such underwriter on substantially the same basis as that of the indemnification by the Company of each Selling Holder provided in this Section 2.08(a). Notwithstanding the foregoing, (i) with respect to any untrue statement or omission or alleged untrue statement or omission made in any preliminary prospectus, or in any prospectus, as the case may be, the indemnity agreement contained in this paragraph shall not apply to the extent that any such losses, claims, damages or liabilities result from the fact that a current copy of the prospectus (or such amended or supplemented prospectus, as the case may be) was not sent or given to the Person asserting such losses, claims, damages or liabilities at or prior to the written confirmation of the sale of the Registrable Stock concerned to such Person if it is determined that the Company had provided such current prospectus (or such amended or supplemented prospectus, as the case may be) to the Holder Representatives or underwriter prior to such confirmation and it was the responsibility of the Holder Representatives or underwriter to provide such Person with a current copy of the prospectus and such current copy of the prospectus (or such amended or supplemented prospectus, as the case may be) would have cured the defect giving rise to such losses, claims, damages or liabilities, and (ii) the indemnity agreement shall also not apply to losses, claims, damages or liabilities attributable to a failure of a Selling Holder, underwriter or other Person on their behalf to comply with Section 2.06(g) or a Blockage Notice.

(b) Each Selling Holder agrees, to the extent Registrable Stock held by such Selling Holder are included in the securities as to which a registration is being effected hereunder, severally and not jointly, to indemnify and hold harmless the Company, its directors, officers and each Person, if any, who controls the Company within the meaning of either Section 15 of the Securities Act or Section 20 of the Exchange Act, from and against any and all losses, claims, damages and liabilities (including, subject to Section 2.08(c), any reasonable legal or other costs, fees and expenses reasonably incurred in connection with defending or investigating any such action or claim) insofar as such losses, claims, damages or liabilities are caused by any untrue statement or alleged untrue statement of a material fact contained in such registration statement at the time it became effective or any amendment thereof, any preliminary prospectus (as amended or supplemented if the Company shall have furnished any amendments or supplements thereto) or prospectus (as amended or supplemented if the Company shall have furnished any amendments or supplements thereto) relating to the Registrable Stock, or caused by any omission or alleged omission to state therein a material fact required to be stated therein or necessary to make the statements therein not misleading, but only with reference to information relating to such Selling Holder furnished in writing by or on behalf of such Selling Holder expressly for use in a registration statement, any preliminary prospectus, prospectus or any amendments or supplements thereto. Each Selling Holder also agrees to indemnify any underwriter of the Registrable Stock so offered and each Person, if any, who controls such underwriter to the same extent and on substantially the same basis as that of the indemnification by such Selling Holder of the Company provided in this Section 2.08(b). Notwithstanding any other provision of this Section 2.08, no Selling Holder's obligations to indemnify pursuant to this Section 2.08 shall exceed the amount of net proceeds received by such Selling Holder in connection with the offering of its Registrable Stock. Each Selling Holder's obligations to indemnify pursuant to this Section are several in the proportion that the net proceeds of the offering received by such Selling Holder bear to the total net proceeds of the offering received by all Selling Holders so obligated to indemnify and not joint.

(c) Each party indemnified under paragraph (a) or (b) above shall, promptly after receipt of notice of a claim or action against such indemnified party in respect of which indemnity may be sought hereunder, notify the indemnifying party in writing of the claim or action and the indemnifying party shall assume the defense thereof, including the employment of counsel reasonably satisfactory to such indemnified party, and shall assume the payment of all fees and expenses in connection therewith; provided that the failure of any indemnified party so to notify the indemnifying party shall not relieve the indemnifying party of its obligations hereunder except to the extent that the indemnifying party is materially prejudiced by such failure to notify. In any such action, any indemnified party shall have the right to retain its own counsel, but the fees and expenses of such counsel shall be at the sole expense of such indemnified party unless (i) the indemnifying party and the indemnified party shall have mutually agreed to the retention of such counsel or (ii) in the reasonable judgment of such indemnified party representation of both parties by the same counsel would be inappropriate due to material differing interests between them or there may be one or more legal defenses available to it that are different from or additional to those available to such person or, in which case the reasonable fees and expenses of such counsel shall be at the sole expense of the indemnifying party. It is understood that the indemnifying party shall not, in connection with any claim or action or related proceeding in the same jurisdiction, be liable for the reasonable fees and expenses of more than one separate firm of attorneys (in addition to any local counsel) at any time for all such indemnified parties, and that all such reasonable fees and expenses shall be reimbursed as they are incurred. In the case of any such separate firm for the Holders as indemnified parties, such firm shall be designated in writing by the indemnified party or the indemnified parties holding a majority of the Registrable Stock included in such registration. The indemnifying party shall not be liable for any settlement of any claim or action effected without its written consent, which consent shall not be unreasonably withheld or delayed, but if settled with such consent, or if there be a final judgment for the plaintiff, the indemnifying party shall indemnify and hold harmless such indemnified parties from and against any loss or liability (to the extent stated above) by reason of such settlement or judgment. No indemnifying party shall, without the prior written consent of the indemnified party, effect any settlement of any pending or threatened claim or action in respect of which any indemnified party is or could have been a party and indemnity could have been sought hereunder by such indemnified party, unless such settlement includes an unconditional release of such indemnified party from all liability arising out of such proceeding.

(d) If the indemnification provided for in this Section 2.08 shall for any reason be unavailable (other than in accordance with its terms) or insufficient to an indemnified party in respect of any loss, liability, cost, claim or damage referred to therein, then each indemnifying party shall, in lieu of indemnifying such indemnified party, contribute to the amount paid or payable by such indemnified party as a result of such loss, liability, cost, claim or damage (A) as between the Company and the underwriters, in such proportion as is appropriate to reflect the relative fault of the indemnifying party or parties on the one hand and of the indemnified party or parties on the other hand in connection with the statements or omissions that resulted in such losses, claims, damages or liabilities, as well as any other relevant equitable considerations, and (B) as between (x) the Company and the Selling Holders or (y) the Selling Holders and the underwriters, in such proportion as is appropriate to reflect the relative fault of the indemnifying party or parties on the one hand and of the indemnified party or parties on the other hand in connection with the statements or omissions that resulted in such losses, claims, damages or liabilities, as well as any other relevant equitable considerations. The relative fault of the Company, the Selling Holders and the underwriters shall be determined by reference to, among other things, whether the untrue or alleged untrue statement of a material fact or the omission or alleged omission to state a material fact relates to information supplied by the Company, by a Selling Holder or by the underwriters and the parties' relative intent, knowledge, access to information and opportunity to correct or prevent such statement or omission, as well as the matters referred to in the last sentence of Section 2.08(a). The amount paid or payable by an indemnified party as a result of the loss, cost, claim, damage or liability, or action in respect thereof, referred to above in this paragraph (d) shall be deemed to include, for purposes of this paragraph (d), any legal or other costs, fees and expenses reasonably incurred by such indemnified party in connection with investigating or defending any such action or claim. The Company and the Selling Holders agree that it would not be just and equitable if contribution pursuant to this Section 2.08 were determined by pro rata allocation (even if the underwriters and/or Selling Holders were treated as one entity for such purpose) or by any other method of allocation which does not take account of the equitable considerations referred to in this paragraph. Notwithstanding any other provision of this Section 2.08, no Selling Holder shall be required to contribute any amount in excess of the amount by which the net proceeds of the offering received by such Selling Holder exceed the amount of any damages which such Selling Holder has otherwise been required to pay by reason of such untrue or alleged untrue statement or omission or alleged omission. Each Selling Holder's obligations to contribute pursuant to this Section are several in the proportion that the net proceeds of the offering received by such Selling Holder bear to the total net proceeds of the offering received by all the Selling Holders and not joint. No Person guilty of fraudulent misrepresentation (within the meaning of Section 11(f) of the Securities Act) shall be entitled to contribution from any person who was not guilty of such fraudulent misrepresentation.

(e) Indemnification and contribution similar to that specified in the preceding paragraphs of this Section 2.08 (with appropriate modifications) shall be given by the Company, the Selling Holders and the underwriters with respect to any required registration or other qualification of securities under any Law.

(f) The obligations of the parties under this Section 2.08 shall be in addition to any liability which any party may otherwise have to any other party.

(g) Notwithstanding the foregoing, to the extent that the provisions on indemnification and contribution contained in an underwriting agreement entered into in connection with an underwritten public offering are in conflict with the foregoing provisions, the provisions in such underwriting agreement shall control; provided that the Holders shall have no obligation to include Registrable Stock under any such underwriting agreement.

SECTION 2.09. Rule 144 and Form S-3. The Company shall use its reasonable best efforts to ensure that the conditions to the availability of Rule 144 set forth in paragraph (c) thereof shall at all times be satisfied. The Company further agrees to use its reasonable best efforts to cause all any successor form) under the Securities Act for the filing of registration statements under this Agreement to at all times be satisfied.

SECTION 2.10. Lock-Up Agreements. If requested by the lead or managing underwriters, each Holder hereby agrees that such Holder shall not sell any Common Stock or securities convertible into or exercisable for Common Stock held by such Holder (other than the sale pursuant to the registration statement of those securities included in the registration) for such requested period (not to exceed ninety (90) days) after the effective date of a registration statement for an underwritten public offering of any of the Company's equity securities in which Registrable Stock of such Holder are included (unless Registrable Stock sought to be included in such underwritten public offering by such Holder were excluded pursuant to the applicable provisions of this Article 2). Notwithstanding the foregoing, this Section 2.10 shall not apply unless all then officers and directors of the Company, and all stockholders of the Company who own Common Stock representing 10% or more of the outstanding Common Stock, enter into similar agreements. Any discretionary waiver or termination of the requirements under the foregoing pro rata basis.

ARTICLE 3 MISCELLANEOUS

SECTION 3.01. Transfers; Rights of Transferees of Registrable Stock; Legends. The Registrable Stock shall be transferable, in whole or in part from time to time, subject to the following restrictions in this Section 3.01. Each Holder agrees not to make any direct or indirect sale, assignment, pledge, transfer or other disposition, whether or not for value (each, a "Transfer") of all or any portion of the Registrable Stock (or any right or interest therein) unless and until (a) there is then in effect a registration statement under the Securities Act covering such proposed Transfer and such Transfer is made in accordance with such registration statement, (b) such Transfer is made in accordance with Rule 144 under the Securities Act and the Company has received an opinion of counsel for such Holder (which opinion may rely on customary certifications as to factual matters), reasonably satisfactory to the Company, that such Transfer is made in accordance with Rule 144 under the Securities Act or (c) (i) the transferee has agreed in writing to be bound by these Transfer restrictions, (ii) such Holder shall have notified the Company of the proposed Transfer and (iii) if reasonably requested by the Company and the transferee is not an Affiliate, immediate family member, trust or estate of the Holder, such Holder shall have furnished the Company with an opinion of counsel for such Holder (which opinion may rely on customary certifications as to factual matters), reasonably satisfactory to the Company, that such Transfer does not require registration of the Registrable Stock under the Securities Act. In connection with a Transfer pursuant to clause (c) of the immediately preceding sentence, the transferee of all or any portion of the Registrable Stock will be deemed a Holder hereunder as soon as the Company receives (A) written notice stating the name and address of the transferee and identifying the number of shares of Registrable Stock, as applicable, transferred, (B) a written agreement, in form and substance acceptable to the Company and Majority Holders, from such transferee to the Company whereby such transferee agrees to be bound by the terms of this Agreement as a Holder and (C) if required under clause (c)(iii) above, the opinion referred to therein. Certificates representing the Registrable Stock shall bear a legend referring to this Agreement and the Transfer restrictions contained herein; provided that such legend shall be removed in connection with any Transfer pursuant to clause (a) or (b) of this Section 3.01.

SECTION 3.02. Holder Representatives. Pursuant to and in accordance with Section 2.11 of the Merger Agreement and the Consent and Indemnity Agreement, each Stockholder has delivered a Stockholder Consent (as defined in the Merger Agreement), whereby each Stockholder has irrevocably appointed, authorized and directed the Holder Representatives, collectively, to act as the Holder Representatives, as such Stockholder's agent, representative proxy and attorney-in-fact, including, but not limited to with respect to the execution and delivery of this Agreement.

Subject to the preceding sentence, this Agreement will be binding upon, inure to the benefit of, and be enforceable by, the parties and their respective successors and permitted assigns.

SECTION 3.06. No Third-Party Beneficiaries. CBS Corporation
51 West 52nd Street
New York, NY 10019

Ladies and Gentlemen:

I am Executive Vice President and General Counsel of CBS Corporation, a Delaware corporation (the "Company"), and have advised the Company in connection with the preparation and filing by the Company with the Securities and Exchange Commission of a Registration Statement on Form S-3 (the "Registration Statement") under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, relating to an aggregate of 10,209,489 shares of Class B common stock, par value $0.001 per share, that may be sold from time to time by certain selling stockholders of the Company (the "Shares").

In so acting, I have examined, either personally or through lawyers who report to me or through other counsel, originals or copies (certified or otherwise identified to our satisfaction) of the Registration Statement, and such corporate records, agreements, documents and other instruments, and such certificates or comparable documents of public officials and of officers and representatives of the Company, and have made such inquiries of such officers and representatives, as I have deemed relevant and necessary as a basis for the opinions hereinafter set forth.

In such examination, I have assumed the genuineness of all signatures, the legal capacity of natural persons, the authenticity of all documents submitted to us as originals, the conformity to original documents of all documents submitted to us as certified, conformed or photostatic copies and the authenticity of the originals of such latter documents. As to all questions of fact material to this opinion that have not been independently established, I have relied upon certificates or comparable documents of officers and representatives of the Company.

Based on the foregoing, and subject to the qualifications stated herein, I am of the opinion that the Shares have been validly issued and are fully paid and nonassessable.

My opinion herein is limited to the Delaware General Corporation Law (excluding the statutory provisions, all applicable provisions of the Delaware Constitution and reported judicial decisions interpreting the foregoing) and I do not express any opinion herein concerning any other law.

I hereby consent to the filing of this letter as an exhibit to the Registration Statement and to the references to me under the caption "Legal Matters" in the prospectus which is a part of the Registration Statement.

Very truly yours,

/s/ Louis J. Briskman
