VIACOM PRICES SENIOR NOTES

NEW YORK, June 13, 2006 — Viacom Inc. (NYSE: VIA and VIA.B) today announced that it has agreed to sell $750 million in aggregate principal amount of floating rate senior notes due 2009 at par in a private offering to qualified institutional buyers pursuant to Rule 144A under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, and outside the United States to non-U.S. persons in compliance with Regulation S under the Securities Act. The sale of the senior notes is expected to close on June 16, 2006.

Viacom intends to use the net proceeds of the offering to repay a portion of the amounts outstanding under its existing credit facilities.

The senior notes have not been registered under the Securities Act, or any state securities laws, and unless so registered, may not be offered nor sold in the United States except pursuant to an exemption from, or in a transaction not subject to, the registration requirements of the Securities Act and applicable securities laws. This news release does not constitute an offer to sell or the solicitation of an offer to buy, nor shall there be any sale of the senior notes in any state in which such offer, solicitation or sale would be unlawful prior to registration or qualification under the securities laws of any such state.
